

Index Card Story Show- Not-Tell Card Pack

Sixteen paper cards help writers turn plain fictional lines into visible clues, object actions, place signals, gestures, texture details, and revised sentences.

Audience: Families, homeschool groups, tutors, and adult-led writing tables for writers ages 7-11.

Format: 16 printable show-not-tell cards plus adult guide tools, show-not-tell routines, take-home show slips, and optional share prompts

Family-safe printable writing pages for adult-led, offline story practice.

$63

Included

- 16 printable index card show-not-tell cards
- Adult setup guide
- Fictional show-not-tell safety notes
- Index card coaching moves
- Family handoff notes
- Pack reset notes
- Six adult-led show-not-tell routines
- Ten take-home show slips
- Eight optional share prompts
- Provider-ready PDF and ZIP artifact

Show-not-tell coaching

Index Card Show-Not-Tell Adult Guide

- Print the index cards, blank clue rows, and revision slips before the adult-led paper session.
- Begin with one plain line and coach the writer to show it through visible clue, object action, place signal, character gesture, and paper-safe sound or texture detail.
- Keep every example fictional, broad, offline, and guided by an adult.
- Use one card per sentence so the page stays small enough for ages 7-11.
- Replace any actual person detail or narrow outside fact with a made-up name, broad story place, or pretend object.
- End each card with a revised sentence that shows the idea without naming it too directly.

Use one index card show-not-tell card at a time. Keep every choice broad, invented, and screen-free.

Sixteen show-not-tell-card worlds

Pick a world image, then start one fictional story with a pretend index card show-not-tell card.

AGES 6-8
Moon Muffin Market

AGES 6-8
Puddle Planet Post Office

AGES 7-9
Buttonwood Library Train

AGES 7-9
Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

AGES 7-8
Teacup Town Weather Window

AGES 7-9
Pocket Park Notice Board

AGES 7-9
Spoon Ferry Lunchbox Harbor

AGES 7-9
Acorn Avenue Errand Office

AGES 8-10
Seed Library Map Room

AGES 8-10
Rain Gauge Railway

AGES 8-10
Moss Message Observatory

AGES 8-10
Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

AGES 10-11
Revision River Ferry

AGES 10-11
Clue Label Tower Museum

AGES 10-11
Compass Craft Academy

AGES 10-11
Binding Day Boardwalk

Choose the index card show-not-tell rhythm

Plain Line Clue Row

Writers who tell the idea first and need a simple path toward showing it.

1. The adult reads one plain line from an index card.
2. The writer names the idea the line currently tells.
3. The adult points to five clue slots: visible clue, object action, place signal, character gesture, and sound/texture detail.
4. The writer writes one revised sentence using two clue slots: _____.

Object Action Swap

Turning a flat sentence into a sentence with a visible story object.

1. The adult circles the object in a plain line.
2. The writer chooses one gentle action the object can do, such as lean, tap, wobble, or slide.
3. The adult asks what the object action helps the reader notice.
4. The writer writes one object action sentence: _____.

Place Signal Pass

Showing a broad fictional place without naming it too plainly.

1. The adult covers the direct place word in a plain line.
2. The writer chooses a place signal such as an arch, shelf, banner, puddle, or lantern.
3. The adult asks what the signal tells the reader about the pretend place.
4. The writer writes one place signal sentence: _____.

Gesture Before Feeling

Replacing a named feeling with a character gesture the reader can see.

1. The adult reads a plain line that tells how a fictional character feels.
2. The writer chooses one character gesture, such as toe tapping, sleeve smoothing, or eyebrow lifting.
3. The adult asks which feeling the gesture lets the reader infer.
4. The writer writes one gesture-first sentence: _____.

Sound Texture Thread

Adding one paper-safe sound or texture detail to make the moment easier to imagine.

1. The adult rereads the plain line and asks where a tiny sensory clue could fit.
2. The writer chooses one sound word or texture phrase a reader can imagine from print.
3. The adult asks whether the clue supports the visible action instead of distracting from it.
4. The writer writes one sound or texture detail sentence: _____.

Revised Sentence Stack

Combining the strongest clues into one clear revised sentence.

1. The adult places the plain line at the top of the index card stack.
2. The writer chooses the strongest visible clue and one supporting clue.
3. The adult asks which telling word can be removed.
4. The writer writes the final revised sentence: _____.

Start one story shown line later

ONE PAPER PASS PLAIN LINE REVISION Plain Line Flip Start with a made-up plain line and revise it into one visible clue sentence: _____. Ask which clue replaced the telling word: _____.	BRIEF ADULT-LED PASS VISIBLE CLUE Visible Clue Card Choose one visible clue that shows a pretend idea without naming it directly: _____. Ask what the reader can picture first: _____.
SINGLE PRINTABLE SLIP OBJECT ACTION Object Action Card Make a fictional object do one gentle action that shows the moment: _____. Ask what the object action helps show: _____.	ONE PENCIL PASS PLACE SIGNAL Place Signal Card Add one broad place signal to show where the pretend moment happens: _____. Ask which signal tells the reader about the place: _____.
CALM PAPER PASS CHARACTER GESTURE Character Gesture Card Replace a named feeling with one visible character gesture: _____. Ask which feeling the gesture shows: _____.	SHORT PAPER PASS PAPER-SAFE SOUND DETAIL Sound Detail Card Add one printable sound word that supports the fictional action: _____. Ask how the sound helps the reader imagine the moment: _____.
QUIET SLIP PASS TEXTURE DETAIL Texture Detail Card Add one texture detail that makes the pretend object easier to picture: _____. Ask which texture word makes the object clearer: _____.	FRESH CARD PASS SHOWING EMOTION Feeling Without Saying It Show a fictional feeling through a clue, action, or gesture instead of naming it: _____. Ask which clue shows the feeling best: _____.
SINGLE CARD PASS COMBINING CLUES Clue Pair Sentence Combine one visible clue and one object action into a revised sentence: _____. Ask how the two clues work together: _____.	SECOND PENCIL PASS REVISED SENTENCE Final Revision Slip Rewrite one plain fictional sentence as a stronger revised sentence: _____. Ask what changed from telling to showing: _____.

Optional share prompts

- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the plain line I will revise is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: one visible clue that shows the idea is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the object action I chose is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the place signal that tells where the pretend moment happens is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the character gesture that shows the feeling is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: one paper-safe sound or texture detail is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the telling word I removed is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: my revised sentence is _____.

Moon Muffin Index Card Glow Clue

Adult setup: Adult: Place the card beside blank paper and read the plain line before the writer adds clues: _____.

Writer: Show the market helper's feeling with things a reader can see on the pretend counter: _____.

Moon Muffin Market

Plain line Plain line: The moon muffin helper felt proud of the new tray: _____.	Visible clue Visible clue: Add one glow mark, neat stack, or careful label that shows the proud feeling: _____.
Object action Object action: Let the tray, muffin wrapper, or crumb card tilt, shine, slide, or stand in a clear way: _____.	Place signal Place signal: Add one pretend market sign, counter mat, or moon tag near the tray: _____.
Character gesture Character gesture: Show the helper straightening, pointing, nodding, or holding the tray with care: _____.	Sound or texture Sound or texture: Add one paper-safe rustle, soft tap, smooth wrapper, or crumbly edge detail: _____.
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying proud, write what the helper does beside the glowing tray: _____.	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: Change the plain line so the reader can infer the feeling from one clue and one action: _____.

Quiet option: Draw the tray clue first, then write one shown sentence under it: _____. Extra paper line: Make another moon-muffin feeling visible with one object clue: _____.

Puddle Planet Index Card Ripple Wait

Adult setup: Adult: Read the plain line and invite the writer to add pretend mail clues instead of naming the feeling: _____.

Writer: Show that the puddle mail helper is waiting by moving the note, stamp, or puddle mark: _____.

Puddle Planet Post Office

Plain line Plain line: The puddle mail helper was impatient for the next note: _____. _____	Visible clue Visible clue: Add one repeated glance at a ripple mark, curled note edge, or empty paper bin: _____. _____
Object action Object action: Make the pretend note drip, wobble, fold, tap, or float beside the helper: _____. _____	Place signal Place signal: Add one puddle-mail counter, shell slot, or round sorting mat that shows where the waiting happens: _____. _____
Character gesture Character gesture: Show the helper tapping two fingers, leaning forward, or lining up stamps again: _____. _____	Sound or texture Sound or texture: Add one plip, paper flutter, slick edge, or soft stamp press detail: _____. _____
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying impatient, write what the helper keeps doing with the note: _____. _____	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: Turn the plain line into a clue sentence with one moving object and one helper gesture: _____. _____

Quiet option: Sketch three small ripple marks, then choose one for the sentence: _____. Extra paper line: Show another puddle-mail wait without naming the feeling: _____.

Buttonwood Index Card Ticket Pause

Adult setup: Adult: Place the card beside blank paper and ask the writer to show uncertainty with a ticket clue: _____.

Writer: Make the traveler seem unsure by showing what happens to the ticket and shelf tag: _____.

Buttonwood Library Train

Plain line Plain line: The traveler was unsure which library train stop to choose: _____.	Visible clue Visible clue: Add one crossed-out shelf tag, bent ticket corner, or paused bookmark strip: _____.
Object action Object action: Let the ticket twist, hover, slide halfway, or rest between two pretend stop cards: _____.	Place signal Place signal: Add one broad train bench, rolling shelf, or station card that frames the choice: _____.
Character gesture Character gesture: Show the traveler turning the ticket over, squinting at a tag, or holding still: _____.	Sound or texture Sound or texture: Add one page whisper, wooden click, smooth ticket edge, or paper rasp detail: _____.
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying unsure, write how the traveler handles the ticket between two choices: _____.	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: Replace the plain feeling word with one visible ticket clue and one pause action: _____.

Quiet option: Draw the ticket between two shelf tags before writing the shown sentence: _____. Extra paper line: Show another library-train choice with a prop and a pause: _____.

Button Bakery Index Card Map Mix

Adult setup: Adult: Read the plain line and invite the writer to show the mix-up with marks on a pretend map: _____.

Writer: Show that the map-mender is confused by using mismatched marks, folds, and gestures: _____.

Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

Plain line
Plain line: The map-mender was confused by the bakery map: _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: Add one button mark beside the wrong crumb dot, folded corner, or upside-down label: _____.

Object action
Object action: Make the map crinkle, flip, buckle, or slide away from the correct paper tag: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: Add one pretend bakery counter, map table, or tray label that helps the reader see the mix-up: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the map-mender tilting the page, tracing a loop, or stopping with one finger on a mark: _____.

Sound or texture
Sound or texture: Add one paper crinkle, dry fold line, soft button tap, or dusty crumb edge detail: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of saying confused, write what does not match on the map and how the mender reacts: _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Change the plain line into a sentence with one mismatched clue and one clear action: _____.

Quiet option: Circle two map marks first, then write which one looks out of place: _____. Extra paper line: Show another map mix-up with one place clue and one object action: _____.

Teacup Town Index Card Weather Peek

Adult setup: Adult: Place the card beside blank paper and ask for one pretend weather-window clue the writer can show: _____.

Writer: Show the watcher's curiosity through looking, touching the paper pane, and noticing texture: _____.

Teacup Town Weather Window

Plain line

Plain line: The weather watcher was curious about the tiny cloud: _____.

Object action

Object action: Let the cloud card drift, quiver, stick, or slide across the pretend pane: _____.

Character gesture

Character gesture: Show the watcher leaning close, raising eyebrows, or holding a finger just above the pane: _____.

Sentence frame

Sentence frame: Instead of saying curious, write how the watcher studies the moving cloud card: _____.

Visible clue

Visible clue: Add one nose-near pane, tiny cloud tag, tilted cup mark, or lifted paper shade: _____.

Place signal

Place signal: Add one Teacup Town sill, weather strip, or small forecast card near the window: _____.

Sound or texture

Sound or texture: Add one papery swish, smooth pane, misty edge, or soft cup clink detail: _____.

Revise show-not-tell

Revise show: Make the plain line visible with one weather clue, one looking gesture, and one texture: _____.

Quiet option: Draw the tiny cloud tag, then write what the watcher notices first: _____. Extra paper line: Show another Teacup Town feeling through a weather clue: _____.

Pocket Park Index Card Notice Cheer

Adult setup: Adult: Read the plain line and invite the writer to show the cheerful mood with board details: _____.

Writer: Show the notice keeper's cheerful mood through the paper board, posted note, and gesture: _____.

Pocket Park Notice Board

Plain line
Plain line: The notice keeper felt cheerful about the new park sign: _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: Add one bright border, straightened corner, leaf stamp, or small drawn burst on the notice: _____.

Object action
Object action: Make the notice flutter, snap flat, slide into place, or lift on one corner: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: Add one pocket-park board edge, bench card, or paper path marker that keeps the scene grounded: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the keeper smoothing the notice, stepping back, or giving a small pleased nod: _____.

Sound or texture
Sound or texture: Add one crisp paper snap, bark-like board texture, smooth pin head, or leafy scratch detail: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of saying cheerful, write what the keeper does after the notice sits straight: _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Trade the told mood for one notice-board clue, one object motion, and one gesture: _____.

Quiet option: Draw the notice corner first, then write the shown mood sentence: _____. Extra paper line: Show another pocket-park mood with a board clue and a gesture: _____.

Spoon Ferry Flag Clue Show Card

Adult setup: Adult: set this card beside blank index cards and choose one pretend harbor feeling to show with clues: _____.

Writer: read the plain line, then show the feeling through ferry clues instead of naming it: _____.

Spoon Ferry Lunchbox Harbor

Plain line Plain line: The spoon ferry was excited. Mark the plain idea you will show instead: _____ _____	Visible clue Visible clue: show excitement with a bouncing paper flag, tilted lid dock, or bright napkin sail: _____ _____
Object action Object action: make the spoon ferry tap a cracker dock, nudge a cargo tag, or slide toward the flag: _____ _____	Place signal Place signal: show the lunchbox harbor with a lid dock, napkin tide strip, or cracker pier: _____ _____
Character gesture Character gesture: show the ferry helper leaning forward, pointing both hands, or lifting a tiny flag: _____ _____	Sound or texture Sound or texture: add a paper-safe clink, soft rustle, smooth spoon shine, or crisp cracker edge: _____ _____
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying excited, write: The spoon ferry _____. _____ _____	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: replace one feeling word with two visible harbor clues and one small action: _____ _____

Quiet option: draw the ferry flag, circle one clue, and write one shown sentence: _____. Carry-out line: make a new spoon ferry sentence that shows a feeling without naming it: _____.

Acorn Avenue Slip Shuffle Show Card

Adult setup: Adult: place the card with two invented acorn slips and pick one gentle feeling for the clerk to show: _____.

Writer: show the clerk's feeling through slip marks, desk items, and gestures instead of naming it: _____.

Acorn Avenue Errand Office

Plain line Plain line: The leaf clerk felt puzzled. Underline the feeling you will show with clues: _____ _____	Visible clue Visible clue: show puzzlement with crossed slip corners, mismatched seed marks, or a tilted leaf label: _____ _____
Object action Object action: make one acorn slip flip over, slide under a seed tag, or bump a twig tray: _____ _____	Place signal Place signal: show the errand office with a twig tray, seed counter, stamp pad, or paper shelf: _____ _____
Character gesture Character gesture: show the leaf clerk tapping a cap, squinting at a mark, or holding two slips apart: _____ _____	Sound or texture Sound or texture: add a paper-safe leaf rustle, dry slip scrape, smooth acorn cap, or soft stamp thump: _____ _____
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying puzzled, write: The leaf clerk _____. _____ _____	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: trade the named feeling for one slip clue, one object move, and one clerk gesture: _____ _____

Quiet option: draw two slips, add one mismatched mark, and write a shown sentence: _____. Carry-out line: invent another acorn office line that shows a feeling with paper clues: _____.

Seed Library Map Table Curiosity Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a pretend seed map, a shelf label, and this card so the writer can show curiosity on paper: _____.

Writer: show curiosity through a seed card, folded map edge, shelf clue, or keeper gesture: _____.

Seed Library Map Room

Plain line
Plain line: The seed keeper was curious. Choose the clue that will show it first: _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: show curiosity with a circled bean symbol, lifted map flap, or tiny shelf label: _____.

Object action
Object action: make the seed card slide beside the folded map, or make a paper marker point to one symbol: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: show the seed-library map table with a shelf row, card pocket, folded map corner, or label strip: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: show the seed keeper leaning close, tracing a symbol, or pausing with a pencil above the card: _____.

Sound or texture
Sound or texture: add a paper-safe map crinkle, dry seed rattle, smooth card edge, or soft shelf tap: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of saying curious, write: The seed keeper _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: remove the named feeling and add one map-table clue plus one keeper gesture: _____.

Quiet option: sketch one map-table symbol, add one keeper gesture, and write the shown line: _____. Carry-out line: create another seed-library map table sentence that shows a feeling with clues: _____.

Rain Gauge Railway Careful Signal Card

Adult setup: Adult: set this card beside a pretend rain gauge sketch and choose one careful railway moment to show: _____.

Writer: show the conductor's careful choice through gauge marks, platform clues, and hand movement: _____.

Rain Gauge Railway

Plain line
Plain line: The rain conductor was careful. Pick the signal detail that will show it:

Object action
Object action: make the flag card lift halfway, the gauge bead settle, or the platform note slide into place:

Character gesture
Character gesture: show the conductor holding one finger still, checking the mark twice, or lowering a flag slowly: _____

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of saying careful, write: The rain conductor _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: show careful attention with an even gauge mark, straight flag card, or lined-up rail label:

Place signal
Place signal: show the railway setting with a glass gauge stand, puddle platform, paper rail, or cloud card:

Sound or texture
Sound or texture: add a paper-safe drip patter, slick gauge shine, flag flutter, or smooth rail edge:

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: replace the named trait with one gauge clue, one object action, and one steady gesture:

Quiet option: draw one signal card beside a gauge mark and write a shown sentence: _____. Carry-out line: make another rain railway line that shows a trait through platform clues: _____.

Moss Message Observatory Wonder Card

Adult setup: Adult: place this card beside a pretend moss note, pebble lens, and lantern card for a gentle show-not-tell rewrite: _____.

Writer: show wonder through the moss note, sky chart, lantern card, and watcher gesture instead of naming it: _____.

Moss Message Observatory

Plain line Plain line: The sky watcher felt amazed. Choose what the reader will see first: _____.	Visible clue Visible clue: show amazement with widened eyes, a raised lantern card, or a glowing moss-shaped mark: _____.
Object action Object action: make the pebble lens roll toward the note, the lantern card tilt, or the chart corner lift: _____.	Place signal Place signal: show the observatory with a moss step, sky shelf, paper chart, or pebble lens tray: _____.
Character gesture Character gesture: show the sky watcher holding both hands still, leaning close, or pointing without speaking: _____.	Sound or texture Sound or texture: add a paper-safe pebble click, soft moss fuzz, lantern-card rustle, or smooth chart edge: _____.
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of saying amazed, write: The sky watcher _____.	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: remove the named feeling and add one moss clue, one object action, and one watcher gesture: _____.

Quiet option: draw one moss mark and one watcher gesture, then write the shown sentence: _____. Carry-out line: invent another moss observatory sentence that shows wonder with paper clues: _____.

Tidepool Timekeeper Shell-Clock Clues

Adult setup: Adult: place one pretend index card beside the tidepool prompt and invite small paper details, keeping the whole scene invented: _____.

Start with the plain line, then show the timekeeper's moment through clues instead of naming the feeling: _____.

Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

Plain line
Plain line: The tidepool timekeeper was ready. Copy or change the plain sentence before adding clues:

Visible clue
Visible clue: Show readiness with one shell mark, bead dial, tide strip, or tiny flag the reader can see:

Object action
Object action: Make the shell clock, bead dial, or paper flag do one small thing that proves the moment has started: _____

Place signal
Place signal: Add one tidepool shelf, pool rim, note tray, or jar line that signals the lab is set for the next step: _____

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the timekeeper's readiness with one hand, chin, pencil, or shoulder movement: _____

Sound or texture
Paper-safe sound or texture: Add a soft click, shell scrape, ripple mark, smooth shell, or gritty card edge: _____

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of naming readiness, write: The tidepool timekeeper _____

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Remove one feeling word and replace it with one visible shell-clock clue:

Quiet option: Circle one tidepool clue and write the revised show sentence on the card: _____, Carry-on line: Use a fresh index card to show a tidepool helper being ready without naming the feeling: _____.

Revision River Ferry Draft Wake

Adult setup: Adult: set out one pretend ferry draft card and ask for clues that show the helper thinking through a change: _____.

Change the plain ferry line by adding what the helper sees, adjusts, touches, or compares on paper: _____.

Revision River Ferry

Plain line
Plain line: The ferry helper was confused. Copy or change the plain sentence before showing the confusion: _____.

Object action
Object action: Make the draft card, folded oar token, rope tag, or ferry note shift, tap, slide, or point: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the helper's confusion with one brow, finger, pause, or pencil movement: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of naming confusion, write: The ferry helper _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: Show confusion with one crossed-out draft word, tilted sign, ripple arrow, or mismatched ferry tag: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: Add one dock card, deck plank mark, river margin, or signpost clue that shows where the draft problem appears: _____.

Sound or texture
Paper-safe sound or texture: Add a pencil scratch, soft paper flap, rope rub, ripple line, or damp-looking card edge: _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Trade the feeling word for two ferry clues, one from an object and one from the helper: _____.

Quiet option: Underline the plain word and write one ferry clue that shows it without saying it: _____. Carry-on line: Try one more ferry sentence where the draft change is shown through a paper clue: _____.

Clue Label Tower Museum Pointer Glow

Adult setup: Adult: place the card beside a made-up tower label and invite one clue trail that stays fictional and paper-only: _____.

Show what makes the clue keeper curious by using labels, objects, and gestures instead of naming curiosity: _____.

Clue Label Tower Museum

Plain line
Plain line: The clue keeper was curious. Copy or change the plain sentence before building visible evidence: _____.

Object action
Object action: Make the label card, pointer strip, display tag, or clue drawer move, tilt, unfold, or reveal: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the keeper's curiosity with one lean, squint, careful reach, or pencil hover: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of naming curiosity, write: The clue keeper _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: Show curiosity with one crooked label, bright pointer strip, tiny question mark, or lifted display tag: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: Add one tower shelf, display step, glassy case, or label rail clue that pulls attention to the mystery: _____.

Sound or texture
Paper-safe sound or texture: Add a paper whisper, label peel, smooth case shine, dusty edge, or crisp card bend: _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Replace the feeling word with one label clue and one keeper gesture: _____.

Quiet option: Draw a tiny label box, then write the clue that shows the keeper wants to know more: _____.

Carry-on line: Create another tower sentence where a label shows curiosity before the character says anything: _____.

Compass Craft Academy Steady Needle

Adult setup: Adult: place two invented compass-craft options beside the card and ask for clues that show careful choosing: _____.

Show the crafter being careful by naming what the paper compass does and how the character checks it: _____.

Compass Craft Academy

Plain line
Plain line: The compass crafter was careful. Copy or change the plain sentence before showing the care:

Object action
Object action: Make the paper needle, bead marker, folded arrow, or compass card swivel, settle, pause, or line up: _____.

Character gesture
Character gesture: Show the crafter's care with one slow breath, narrowed eyes, steady hand, or second check: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Instead of naming care, write: The compass crafter _____.

Visible clue
Visible clue: Show careful work with one aligned arrow, centered bead, tiny fold mark, or neat pencil tick: _____.

Place signal
Place signal: Add one craft bench, supply tray, marker rail, or folded-paper stand that shows where the careful choice happens: _____.

Sound or texture
Paper-safe sound or texture: Add a soft paper creak, bead tap, smooth fold, pencil tick, or crisp card corner: _____.

Revise show-not-tell
Revise show: Replace the plain adjective with one compass action and one small checking gesture: _____.

Quiet option: Mark the careful object action first, then write the revised sentence below it: _____. Carry-on line: Invent another compass-craft sentence where careful choice appears through a tool clue: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk Clasp Promise

Adult setup: Adult: place a pretend folded-page card beside this prompt and keep the promise small, kind, and fully invented: _____.

Show the page helper's pride through a careful object detail and a gentle action, without naming the feeling: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk

Plain line Plain line: The page helper felt proud. Copy or change the plain sentence before showing pride through details: _____.	Visible clue Visible clue: Show pride with one straightened clasp, neat thread loop, polished page edge, or tucked promise slip: _____.
Object action Object action: Make the booklet clasp, folded page, thread loop, or sign card close, shine, settle, or line up: _____.	Place signal Place signal: Add one boardwalk rail, booklet stand, paper booth, or page table clue that shows the promise has been kept: _____.
Character gesture Character gesture: Show the helper's pride with one small nod, careful smile, lifted chin, or gentle pat on the page: _____.	Sound or texture Paper-safe sound or texture: Add a clasp click, thread brush, smooth page edge, crisp fold, or soft card tap: _____.
Sentence frame Sentence frame: Instead of naming pride, write: The page helper _____.	Revise show-not-tell Revise show: Replace the feeling word with one kept-promise clue and one page-helper gesture: _____.

Quiet option: Choose one clasp or page clue, then write a sentence that shows pride silently: _____. Carry-on line: Make one more boardwalk index card where a page detail shows a gentle promise kept: _____.