

Folder Tab Story Detail Card Pack

Sixteen paper cards help writers file one fictional detail at a time, then turn that detail into a clearer story sentence.

Audience: Families, homeschool groups, tutors, and adult-led writing tables for writers ages 7-11.

Format: 16 printable detail cards plus adult guide tools, detail routines, take-home detail slips, and optional share prompts

Family-safe printable writing pages for adult-led, offline story practice.

$61

Included

- 16 printable folder tab detail cards
- Adult setup guide
- Fictional detail safety notes
- Folder tab detail coaching moves
- Privacy and family handoff notes
- Pack reset notes
- Six adult-led detail routines
- Ten take-home detail slips
- Eight optional share prompts
- Provider-ready PDF and ZIP artifact

Detail coaching

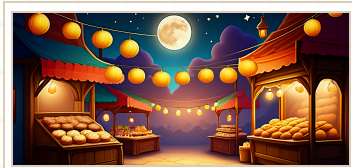

Folder Tab Detail Card Adult Guide

- Print the detail cards, blank slips, and folder-tab labels before the adult-led paper session.
- Use folder tabs as paper props for labeling, sorting, pointing, filing, comparing, and revising invented story details.
- Keep every detail fictional, broad, offline, and guided by an adult.
- Focus detail work on visual clues, story objects, gentle actions, and mood words.
- Replace narrow outside facts with made-up tab labels before anyone writes.
- Send along only blank slips or invented examples that use made-up people and broad pretend places.

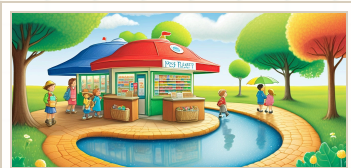

Use one folder tab detail card at a time. Keep every choice broad, invented, and screen-free.

Sixteen detail-card worlds

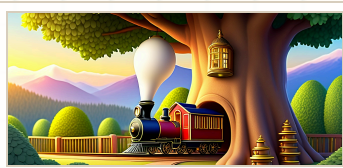

Pick a world image, then start one fictional story with a pretend folder tab detail card.

AGES 6-8
Moon Muffin Market

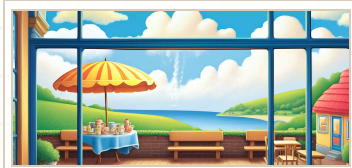

AGES 6-8
Puddle Planet Post Office

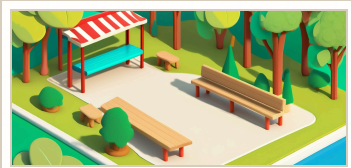

AGES 7-9
Buttonwood Library Train

AGES 7-9
Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

AGES 7-8
Teacup Town Weather Window

AGES 7-9
Pocket Park Notice Board

AGES 7-9
Spoon Ferry Lunchbox Harbor

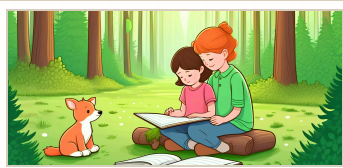

AGES 7-9
Acorn Avenue Errand Office

AGES 8-10
Seed Library Map Room

AGES 8-10
Rain Gauge Railway

AGES 8-10
Moss Message Observatory

AGES 8-10
Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

AGES 10-11
Revision River Ferry

AGES 10-11
Clue Label Tower Museum

AGES 10-11
Compass Craft Academy

AGES 10-11
Binding Day Boardwalk

Choose the folder tab detail rhythm

Label the Detail

Writers who need one clear story detail before drafting.

1. The adult places a blank folder tab beside one detail card.

2. The writer chooses a broad tab label such as color, object, action, or mood.

3. The adult asks which made-up detail belongs under that label.

4. The writer writes one matching fictional detail: _____.

Sort Three Details

Choosing useful details without crowding a sentence.

1. The adult lays out three blank slips and names one invented scene.

2. The writer sorts slips into visual, object, and action tabs.

3. The adult asks which tab gives the reader the clearest clue.

4. The writer writes the chosen detail under the tab: _____.

Point to the Clue

Adding a detail that helps the reader notice one story clue.

1. The adult uses a folder tab as a pointer beside a made-up story object.

2. The writer names what the pointer helps the reader notice.

3. The adult asks whether the clue is visual, action, object, or mood.

4. The writer writes one pointed clue sentence: _____.

File by Mood

Connecting a gentle mood word to a visible story detail.

1. The adult labels two tabs calm and curious.

2. The writer chooses one invented object or action for each tab.

3. The adult asks which tab better fits the next story moment.

4. The writer files one mood detail into a sentence: _____.

Compare and Choose

Replacing a vague detail with a clearer fictional one.

1. The adult places two invented detail slips under one folder tab.

2. The writer compares which slip is easier to picture.

3. The adult asks what makes the clearer detail useful.

4. The writer writes the clearer revised detail: _____.

Revise the Tab

Changing a too-broad label into a stronger story-detail label.

1. The adult reads the current folder-tab label aloud.

2. The writer chooses a more specific invented label that stays broad and safe.

3. The adult asks which detail now belongs under the revised label.

4. The writer writes the revised tab detail: _____.

Start one story detail later

ONE PAPER PASS VISUAL DETAIL Color Tab Label a pretend color tab and write one fictional detail under it: _____. Ask which color clue helps the story picture: _____.	BRIEF ADULT-LED PASS OBJECT DETAIL Object Tab File one made-up object under a folder tab and add one story detail: _____. Ask what the object helps the reader notice: _____.
SINGLE PRINTABLE SLIP ACTION DETAIL Action Tab Sort one gentle fictional action onto a tab and write it in a sentence: _____. Ask which action makes the moment easier to picture: _____.	QUIET PAPER PASS MOOD DETAIL Mood Tab Choose a calm mood tab and add one visible made-up clue for it: _____. Ask which clue shows the mood on the page: _____.
ONE PENCIL PASS CLUE DETAIL Tiny Clue Tab Point a folder tab at one tiny fictional clue and write the clue clearly: _____. Ask what the pointer helps the reader see: _____.	SHORT PAPER PASS DETAIL CHOICE Compare Tabs Compare two invented details and choose the one that is easier to picture: _____. Ask why that detail belongs on the folder tab: _____.
FRESH SLIP PASS LABEL REVISION Revise a Label Revise a vague tab label into a clearer made-up story label: _____. Ask which label made the detail clearer: _____.	CALM STORY PASS BROAD SETTING DETAIL File the Setting Hint File one broad invented setting hint under a folder tab: _____. Ask what hint tells the reader where the pretend moment happens: _____.
SINGLE CARD PASS COMBINED DETAIL Object Plus Action Put one made-up object and one gentle action under the same tab: _____. Ask how the object and action fit together: _____.	SECOND PENCIL PASS DETAIL REVISION Detail Swap Swap a plain invented detail for a clearer visual story detail: _____. Ask which swapped detail gives the reader more to picture: _____.

Optional share prompts

- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the folder-tab label I chose is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: one visual story detail under this tab is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the invented object I filed is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the gentle action detail I sorted is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the mood clue I pointed to is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the clearer detail after comparing is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: the revised tab label is _____.
- Optional adult-led offline prompt: an adult can add one broad made-up detail here: _____.

Moon Muffin Folder Tab Crumb Detail

Adult setup: Adult: Print the card, add a paper folder tab label, and invite one made-up market detail to sort: _____.

Writer: Point to the folder tab, choose one moon-muffin detail, and add it to the scene: _____.

Moon Muffin Market

Focus detail
Focus detail: The folder tab label names the detail the reader should notice first:

Place detail
Place detail: The pretend market counter shows one small sign, tray, or paper tag beside the muffin:

Mood signal
Mood signal: The detail makes the market moment feel quiet, busy, bright, or curious because:

Detail question
Detail question: Which one muffin detail should stay on the folder tab for this scene:

Object trait
Object trait: The moon muffin has one tiny shape, color, edge, or sparkle that feels important:

Character move
Character action: The helper points, sorts, files, or compares the muffin detail with:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The tiny moon-muffin detail is easy to notice because: _____

Revise detail
Revise detail: Make the detail clearer by adding one paper label, color word, or size word:

Quiet option: Draw the folder tab first, then write one moon-muffin detail on it: _____. Extra paper line: File another pretend market detail under a new folder tab: _____.

Puddle Planet Folder Tab Ripple Note

Adult setup: Adult: Place this card beside blank paper and name one pretend ripple note for the folder tab: _____.

Writer: Label the folder tab, then choose one puddle-mail detail that belongs under it: _____.

Puddle Planet Post Office

Focus detail Focus detail: The folder tab tells the reader to notice one puddle-mail clue before anything else: _____ _____	Object trait Object trait: The pretend note has one ripple mark, stamp shape, folded corner, or shiny edge: _____ _____
Place detail Place detail: The Puddle Planet mail desk includes one paper bin, shell label, or round mat: _____ _____	Character move Character action: The mail helper files, taps, turns, or compares the note detail with: _____ _____
Mood signal Mood signal: The clue makes the mail moment feel calm, bouncy, careful, or surprised because: _____ _____	Sentence frame Sentence frame: The puddle note looks different when the writer adds: _____ _____
Detail question Detail question: Which ripple-note detail should the folder tab help the reader track: _____ _____	Revise detail Revise detail: Add one more pretend mail clue so the tab label feels precise: _____ _____

Quiet option: Sketch the note corner and write one folder-tab label beside it: _____.

Extra paper line: Sort another made-up puddle note by one clear detail: _____.

Buttonwood Folder Tab Ticket Detail

Adult setup: Adult: Print the card and choose one invented ticket, shelf tag, or bookmark strip for the folder tab: _____.

Writer: Use the tabbed detail to show what the traveler notices and does next: _____.

Buttonwood Library Train

Focus detail
Focus detail: The folder tab should name the detail that guides the library-train scene:

Place detail
Place detail: The Buttonwood Library Train stop includes one broad shelf, bench, bell card, or paper sign:

Mood signal
Mood signal: The detail gives the scene a steady, puzzled, cheerful, or careful feeling because:

Detail question
Detail question: Which ticket or shelf detail should the reader remember later: _____.

Object trait
Object trait: The ticket, shelf tag, or bookmark has one texture, mark, color, or folded edge:

Character move
Character action: The traveler points to, files, compares, or slides the tabbed detail toward:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The traveler notices the tabbed detail, so the next action is: _____.

Revise detail
Revise detail: Replace a plain word with a sharper detail from the folder tab: _____.

Quiet option: Draw a ticket tab and add one clear describing word: _____. Extra paper line: File one new library-train detail and use it in a sentence: _____.

Button Bakery Folder Tab Map Mark

Adult setup: Adult: Set out the card with a folded pretend map and invite one button mark to label on the folder tab: _____.

Writer: Compare the tabbed map detail with another small bakery detail in the scene: _____.

Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

Focus detail Focus detail: The folder tab names the map detail that should stand out in the scene: _____ _____	Object trait Object trait: The map has one button mark, crumb-shaped dot, fold line, or tiny arrow shape: _____ _____
Place detail Place detail: The bakery-map table includes one paper tray, tab stack, pretend counter, or label strip: _____ _____	Character move Character action: The map-mender sorts, files, points to, or compares the marked detail with: _____ _____
Mood signal Mood signal: The detail makes the map moment feel neat, mixed-up, bright, or thoughtful because: _____ _____	Sentence frame Sentence frame: The first map detail differs from the second detail because: _____ _____
Detail question Detail question: Which button-bakery detail should the folder tab help compare: _____ _____	Revise detail Revise detail: Make the comparison clearer by adding one size, color, or placement word: _____ _____

Quiet option: Mark two paper tabs, then circle the detail that matters most: _____. Extra paper line: Compare two new pretend bakery-map details on a fresh tab: _____.

Teacup Town Folder Tab Weather Detail

Adult setup: Adult: Print the card and choose one pretend weather clue to write on the folder tab: _____.

Writer: Use the folder tab to keep one weather-window detail in the scene: _____.

Teacup Town Weather Window

Focus detail
Focus detail: The tab label should name the weather clue that changes how the scene feels:

Place detail
Place detail: The Teacup Town window area shows one sill card, cloud label, or tiny forecast strip:

Mood signal
Mood signal: The weather detail makes the moment feel cozy, crisp, curious, or bright because:

Detail question
Detail question: Which weather-window detail best shows the feeling of this moment:

Object trait
Object trait: The weather clue has one swirl, dot, stripe, shimmer, or paper-tag shape:

Character move
Character action: The watcher points, files, sorts, or compares the weather detail beside:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The scene feels different after the watcher notices: _____.

Revise detail
Revise detail: Strengthen the mood by adding one visible clue from the tab: _____.

Quiet option: Draw one weather tab and write the feeling word under it: _____. Extra paper line: File another Teacup Town weather detail and match it to a feeling: _____.

Pocket Park Folder Tab Notice Detail

Adult setup: Adult: Place this card near blank paper and choose one invented notice-board detail to file under a tab: _____.

Writer: Pick one notice detail, file it under the tab, and revise the sentence so it is clearer: _____.

Pocket Park Notice Board

Focus detail Focus detail: The folder tab names the notice-board detail the reader should keep in mind: _____ _____	Object trait Object trait: The notice has one crooked corner, leaf stamp, dotted border, or tiny label strip: _____ _____
Place detail Place detail: The pocket-park board includes one broad paper panel, tab row, or pretend display edge: _____ _____	Character move Character action: The notice keeper labels, files, points to, or compares the board detail with: _____ _____
Mood signal Mood signal: The sharper detail makes the scene feel tidy, curious, gentle, or lively because: _____ _____	Sentence frame Sentence frame: The notice-board clue becomes clearer when the writer adds: _____ _____
Detail question Detail question: Which notice detail should be revised before the scene continues: _____ _____	Revise detail Revise detail: Trade one plain notice word for a sharper folder-tab clue: _____ _____

Quiet option: Write one plain word on the tab, then revise it into a clearer detail: _____. Extra paper line: File another pretend notice detail and revise it once: _____.

Spoon Ferry Lunchbox Harbor Tab Details

Adult setup: Adult: set this folder tab beside a pretend harbor sketch and choose one tab label to sort the scene: _____.

Writer: add one clear detail that helps the spoon ferry, lid dock, or paper flag stand out: _____.

Spoon Ferry Lunchbox Harbor

Focus detail
Focus detail: point the folder tab at the one harbor part readers should notice first:

Place detail
Place detail: describe where the pretend harbor label sits inside the lunchbox container:

Mood signal
Mood signal: show the scene feels calm, busy, curious, or careful by adding one visible clue:

Detail question
Detail question: which label, mark, or shape should the reader picture first: _____.

Object trait
Object trait: give the spoon ferry, lid dock, or paper flag one size, color, shape, or surface clue:

Character move
Character action: show the ferry helper filing, pointing, or sorting one tiny harbor tag:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The folder tab points to the chosen harbor object because it has this detail:

Revise detail
Revise detail: compare two invented harbor details and keep the clearer one: _____.

Quiet option: draw one tab label and one spoon ferry detail without adding extra scene parts: _____. Carry-out line: make another folder tab detail for a pretend container harbor: _____.

Acorn Avenue Paper Slip Detail Sort

Adult setup: Adult: place the card with two pretend acorn slips and let the folder tab mark the one to describe: _____.

Writer: choose one acorn slip, leaf stamp, or seed mark and add a detail a reader can picture: _____.

Acorn Avenue Errand Office

Focus detail
Focus detail: point the folder tab at the slip detail that matters most in this made-up office moment:

Object trait
Object trait: describe the acorn slip with one color, shape, edge, fold, or tiny symbol:

Place detail
Place detail: show where the sorted slip rests on the twig tray, seed counter, or paper shelf:

Character move
Character action: show the leaf clerk labeling, filing, or comparing one invented slip:

Mood signal
Mood signal: show the office feels orderly, puzzled, cheerful, or careful through one paper clue:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The folder tab marks the slip with this detail: _____

Detail question
Detail question: what tiny mark helps the reader tell this acorn slip from the others:

Revise detail
Revise detail: replace a plain slip detail with one clearer invented mark: _____

Quiet option: draw two slips, tab one, and write one detail about the tabbed slip: _____. Carry-out line: invent another acorn office detail using only paper slips and tab labels: _____.

Seed Library Map Room Detail Tab

Adult setup: Adult: set out a pretend seed map and use the folder tab to mark one broad shelf clue: _____.

Writer: add one exact-looking but invented detail to the map fold, seed card, or shelf label: _____.

Seed Library Map Room

Focus detail
Focus detail: point the folder tab at the map-room part that should pull the reader's eye first:
_____.

Place detail
Place detail: show where the tabbed clue sits near a shelf corner, map table, or card pocket:
_____.

Mood signal
Mood signal: show the map room feels quiet, bright, curious, or neatly arranged with one visible detail:
_____.

Detail question
Detail question: which seed shape, border mark, or shelf label makes the clue easier to picture:
_____.

Object trait
Object trait: describe the seed card, map fold, or shelf label with one texture, color, shape, or border:
_____.

Character move
Character action: show the seed keeper comparing, filing, or sliding the tab beside one clue:
_____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: Near the folder tab, the seed-library clue looks like this: _____.

Revise detail
Revise detail: trade a vague map-room detail for one clearer paper clue: _____.

Quiet option: sketch one map fold, add a folder tab, and name one detail on the tabbed clue: _____. Carry-out line: create another seed-library detail by tabbing a pretend map or shelf card: _____.

Rain Gauge Railway Platform Detail Tab

Adult setup: Adult: place the folder tab beside a pretend gauge sketch and choose one platform detail to describe: _____.

Writer: add one visible detail to the gauge mark, cloud card, flag label, or platform edge: _____.

Rain Gauge Railway

Focus detail
Focus detail: point the folder tab at the rain railway clue that should guide the reader's attention:

Place detail
Place detail: show where the tabbed clue sits on the pretend platform, beside the gauge, or near a paper rail:

Mood signal
Mood signal: show the railway feels misty, patient, lively, or careful with one visible clue:

Detail question
Detail question: what gauge mark, flag shape, or platform clue makes the scene clearer:

Object trait
Object trait: describe the gauge, flag label, or cloud card with one color, shine, size, or shape:

Character move
Character action: show the conductor filling, pointing to, or comparing one signal card:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The folder tab points to the railway detail that shows this: _____

Revise detail
Revise detail: add one stronger rain railway clue and remove one fuzzy detail: _____

Quiet option: draw one gauge mark, tab it, and write a single platform detail: _____

Carry-out line: make another rain railway detail card with a tabbed signal or platform clue: _____

Moss Message Observatory Detail File

Adult setup: Adult: set the folder tab beside a pretend moss note and choose one detail to file under sky clues: _____.

Writer: add one visible detail to the moss mark, pebble lens, lantern card, or sky shelf: _____.

Moss Message Observatory

Focus detail
Focus detail: point the folder tab at the moss-message clue the reader should notice first:

Place detail
Place detail: show where the tabbed clue rests on the observatory step, shelf, or paper chart:

Mood signal
Mood signal: show the observatory feels hushed, bright, curious, or careful through one visible detail:

Detail question
Detail question: what moss shade, lantern edge, or pebble shape makes the note easier to imagine:

Object trait
Object trait: describe the moss note, pebble lens, or lantern card with one shade, shape, size, or edge:

Character move
Character action: show the sky watcher filing, comparing, or pointing to one tabbed clue:

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: The tabbed moss-message detail helps the reader see this: _____

Revise detail
Revise detail: compare two observatory details and keep the one that sharpens the moss note:

Quiet option: draw one moss note, add a folder tab, and write one clear detail: _____. Carry-out line: invent another observatory detail by filing one moss-message clue under a tab: _____.

Tidepool Timekeeper Shell Tab

Adult setup: Adult: place the card beside a pretend folder tab label and invite one shell-clock detail, keeping the scene fictional and paper-only: _____.

Write the tiny detail the folder tab should file before the next tidepool moment begins: _____.

Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

Focus detail Focus detail: The tidepool timekeeper files the most helpful shell-clock clue under the tab labeled _____.	Object trait Object trait: The shell-clock, bead dial, or paper tide strip looks different because _____.
Place detail Place detail: The pretend tidepool shelf, pool edge, or note tray shows the order by _____.	Character move Character action: The timekeeper points to the folder tab and chooses to _____.
Mood signal Mood signal: Show the timekeeper's curious mood with one small tidepool clue: _____.	Sentence frame Sentence frame: File the detail into this sentence: The shell-clock clue showed _____.
Detail question Detail question: Which small tidepool clue helps the reader picture the order? _____.	Revise detail Revise detail: Make the tidepool detail smaller by naming one shell, bead, mark, or note: _____.

Quiet option: Sort two pretend tidepool details under one folder tab and write the clearer one: _____. Carry-on line: Invent one more paper folder tab label for a tidepool detail: _____.

Revision River Ferry Compare Tab

Adult setup: Adult: place two pretend ferry notes under a folder tab and ask which one needs a sharper story detail: _____.

Choose the ferry detail that should change, then write the clearer detail on the tab line: _____.

Revision River Ferry

Focus detail Focus detail: The folder tab marks the ferry detail that needs the writer's attention: _____ _____	Object trait Object trait: The paper ferry token, rope tag, or ripple card becomes easier to picture when _____ _____
Place detail Place detail: The invented ferry dock, deck note, or river sign feels clearer after _____. _____ _____	Character move Character action: The ferry helper compares the two tabbed notes and decides to _____ _____
Mood signal Mood signal: Show the helper's thoughtful mood with one gentle ferry clue: _____. _____ _____	Sentence frame Sentence frame: File the revised detail into this sentence: The ferry moment changed when _____ _____
Detail question Detail question: Which exact ferry detail should become smaller, clearer, or more useful? _____ _____	Revise detail Revise detail: Replace one broad ferry word with a sharper paper detail: _____. _____ _____

Quiet option: Circle one fuzzy ferry detail and file one clearer word under the tab: _____. Carry-on line: Invent another ferry folder tab that compares an old detail with a clearer one: _____.

Clue Label Tower Pointer Tab

Adult setup: Adult: set the card beside a made-up display label and keep every tower clue invented, broad, and paper-only: _____.

Write the detail that makes the folder tab point from the label to the clue the reader should notice: _____.

Clue Label Tower Museum

Focus detail
Focus detail: The tower keeper files the label clue under the tab named _____.

Object trait
Object trait: The label card, pointer strip, or display tag stands out because _____.

Place detail
Place detail: The pretend tower shelf, label step, or clue rail gives the reader this hint: _____.

Character move
Character action: The clue keeper points, sorts, or refiles the label so it can _____.

Mood signal
Mood signal: Show the keeper's alert mood with one small label clue: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: File the clue into this sentence: The label pointed toward _____.

Detail question
Detail question: Which label detail helps the reader find the next invented clue? _____.

Revise detail
Revise detail: Add one shape, color, texture, or surface detail to sharpen the label clue: _____.

Quiet option: Draw one folder tab and write the clue word it should point toward: _____. Carry-on line: Invent one more tower label tab for a pretend clue display: _____.

Compass Craft Choice Sort Tab

Adult setup: Adult: place two pretend craft options beside the folder tab and invite the writer to file one choice detail: _____.

Write the detail that shows why the compass crafter chooses one paper option over another: _____.

Compass Craft Academy

Focus detail
Focus detail: The folder tab holds the choice detail that matters most to the compass crafter:

Object trait
Object trait: The paper needle, bead marker, or folded arrow looks useful because

Place detail
Place detail: The invented craft table, bead rail, or folded-arrow stand shows the choice by

Character move
Character action: The compass crafter sorts the options and chooses to _____.

Mood signal
Mood signal: Show the crafter's steady mood with one small craft clue: _____.

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: File the choice into this sentence: The crafter chose the option that

Detail question
Detail question: Which choice detail helps the reader understand the crafter's next move?

Revise detail
Revise detail: Name both pretend options, then make the chosen detail more exact:

Quiet option: Sort option A and option B under the tab, then write the chosen detail: _____. Carry-on line: Invent one more compass-craft folder tab that files a useful choice detail: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk Promise Tab

Adult setup: Adult: place the card near a pretend folded page and invite one small promise detail that stays fictional and kind: _____.

Write the paper detail that shows how the page helper keeps the promise in the next story moment: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk

Focus detail
Focus detail: The folder tab labels the promise detail the helper should remember:

Place detail
Place detail: The invented boardwalk page table, booklet booth, or paper rail feels clearer when

Mood signal
Mood signal: Show the helper's careful mood with one small page clue: _____

Detail question
Detail question: Which small detail makes the promise easy to picture and easy to keep?

Object trait
Object trait: The folded page, clasp note, or booklet sign shows the promise because

Character move
Character action: The page helper files the promise note and chooses to _____

Sentence frame
Sentence frame: File the promise detail into this sentence: The helper remembered to

Revise detail
Revise detail: Make the promise detail smaller by naming one page, clasp, sign, or fold:

Quiet option: Write the promise detail under one folder tab and add one careful action: _____. Carry-on line: Invent one more boardwalk folder tab for a gentle promise detail: _____.