

Tutoring Center Story Sprint Pack

Twenty 10-minute writing sprints for tutoring centers, small groups, after-school tables, and homeschool co-op tutors.

$49

Best for: Literacy tutors, tutoring centers, after-school programs, homeschool co-op tutors, and small-group writing intervention leaders for ages 7-11.

Format: 20 printable 10-minute story sprints plus tutor setup tools

No scary harm, no bullying, no romance, no weapons, no branded characters, no real child profiles.

Inside

20 printable sprint pages

Before-session prep guide

Tutor setup checklist

During-sprint coaching notes

Wrap-up routine

No-data center use notes

Five sprint routines

Eight take-home micro-practice slips

Six optional share prompts

Provider-ready PDF, source HTML, manifest, and ZIP artifact

TUTOR SETUP

Run the tutoring sprints

Before session

Choose one sprint routine for the block and one backup slip for a shorter finish.
Print only the pages needed for today's table so the packet stays light.
Pick an invented setting, an ordinary object, and a small mix-up before the writer arrives.
Place pencils, blank paper, and one quiet choice card within easy reach.
Plan a short adult model that shows one clear detail and one next action.

Setup

Seat the writer where the page, pencil, and timer are easy to see.
Set the sprint page on top and keep take-home slips in a separate stack.
Mark the first box to start so the writer does not need to scan every choice.
Offer two invented options if the writer feels stuck at the opening.
Keep the table clear except for the active page and one writing tool.

During sprint

Start with a two-minute choice talk, then move quickly to marks on paper.
Use invented people, places, and objects for every prompt.
Prompt for one sentence, one sketch label, or one dictated phrase at a time.
Praise a specific craft move such as a clearer verb, setting detail, or ordered step.
Pause after each step and ask whether the writer wants the next choice or a quiet minute.

Wrap up

Ask the writer to circle one finished part they want to keep.
Choose one take-home slip that matches the skill practiced in the sprint.
Write a simple finish mark such as title, detail, ending, or next step.
Place loose pages in a plain folder or envelope for the family table.
Reset unused slips and pencils before the next writer arrives.

No-data use

Use invented details only; personal facts are not needed.
Keep pages on paper with the tutor or family.
Use color dots, symbols, or blank folders if pages need a simple mark.
Share work only when the writer chooses a comfortable option.

Image-backed world menu

AGES 6-8 Moon Muffin Market	AGES 6-8 Puddle Planet Post Office	AGES 7-9 Buttonwood Library Train	AGES 8-10 Cloudberry Clocktower
AGES 8-10 Tiny Lantern Reef	AGES 10-11 Pencil Dragon Academy	AGES 7-9 Acorn Avenue Errand Office	AGES 7-9 Button Bakery Map Mix-Up
AGES 8-10 Rain Gauge Railway	AGES 7-9 Rain Boot Route Rangers	AGES 7-9 Pocket Park Notice Board	AGES 7-9 Penny Path Compass Shop
AGES 8-10 Seed Library Map Room	AGES 8-10 Greenhouse Gear Garden	AGES 10-11 Index Card Theater Club	AGES 10-11 Margin Note Market
AGES 10-11 Clue Label Tower Museum	AGES 10-11 Revision River Ferry	AGES 10-11 Compass Craft Academy	AGES 10-11 Almost Invention Workshop

Use these pages offline for adult-guided tutoring. Keep finished pages in folders or send them home.

Sprint routines and optional share prompts

Ten-Minute Story Seed

Best for: A first tutoring block when the writer needs a fast win with little setup.

- 1. Pick one invented place from two tutor options.
- 2. Add one ordinary object that belongs in that place.
- 3. Write three short lines: what is noticed, what changes, and what helps.
- 4. Circle the strongest line and turn it into the opening of a tiny story.

Detail Ladder Sprint

Best for: Writers who make very short drafts and need more concrete description.

- 1. Draw four ladder rungs on the page.
- 2. Write one color, one sound, one texture, and one action on the rungs.
- 3. Choose two rungs and place them in one sentence about an invented setting.
- 4. Add one next action that makes the setting easier to picture.

Tiny Problem Turn

Best for: A middle sprint when the page has a setting but no movement yet.

- 1. Choose a small mix-up such as a missing key, swapped map, or sleepy clock.
- 2. Write what the story helper tries first.
- 3. Write what the helper notices after the first try.
- 4. Finish with one kind fix that changes the scene.

Quiet Dialogue Cards

Best for: Writers practicing conversation without a long draft.

- 1. Label two invented roles such as maker and guide.
- 2. Write one line where the maker asks for help.
- 3. Write one line where the guide gives a useful clue.
- 4. Add one sentence showing what both roles do next.

Ending Switch Sprint

Best for: A closing routine for revision, endings, and flexible thinking.

- 1. Choose one draft sentence near the end of the page.
- 2. Write a peaceful ending where the helper solves the mix-up.
- 3. Write a second ending where the helper finds a new clue for later.
- 4. Pick the ending that matches the beginning and add one clearer detail.

Optional share prompts

Sharing is optional: point to one word, sketch, or title you like.

You may show one circled detail and say why it belongs in the story.

You may ask the tutor to speak for your page, or you may pass.

Share one choice you changed during the sprint if you want to.

Show one ending choice with a thumbs-up, point, or quiet sentence.

Keep your page private today and listen for one clear detail from the group.

Take-home micro-practice slips

6 MINUTES | SETTING DETAIL
One More Setting Detail
Add one setting detail to today's invented place: _____.
A grown-up can ask what the place feels like: _____.

7 MINUTES | PLOT CLUE
Object Clue Finish
Choose one object from the sprint and write how it helps: _____.
A grown-up can offer two object choices here: _____.

5 MINUTES | MAIN IDEA
Title Three Ways
Write one place title, one object title, and one action title: _____.
A grown-up can ask which title gives the clearest clue: _____.

6 MINUTES | SEQUENCE
Next Step Strip
Write first, next, and last for three small helper actions: _____.
A grown-up can point to the step that should become a sentence: _____.

8 MINUTES | ENDING CHOICE
Kind Fix Add-On
Add one kind fix to the mix-up and write why it works: _____.
A grown-up can ask what changed after the kind fix: _____.

7 MINUTES | DIALOGUE
Dialogue Pair
Write two short lines between invented roles: _____.
A grown-up can take one role and let the writer choose the reply: _____.

5 MINUTES | WORD CHOICE
Clearer Verb Swap
Pick one action word and trade it for a clearer verb: _____.
A grown-up can offer two action words and ask which one fits: _____.

6 MINUTES | PLANNING
Scene Sketch Label
Draw one tiny scene box and label three parts: _____.
A grown-up can ask how one label could start a sentence: _____.

Moon Muffin Market Smell Map

Pick one muffin stall, add three tiny market details, and write one keeper sentence.

Ask which detail the reader can smell, see, or hear before asking for a full sentence.

setting detail

10-minute one-to-one warmup for a hesitant writer who can pick from concrete food and light details.

Tutor setup: Print one page, set out a pencil, and offer two market choices before writing starts.

Moon Muffin Market

Market Start

The moon muffin stall smells like _____.

The stall light looks like _____.

The crumb path leads to _____.

Tiny Job

The muffin helper carries _____.

The helpful muffin can fix _____.

The market bell tells everyone to _____.

Keeper Sentence

First, the helper notices _____.

Next, the helper chooses _____.

My best market sentence is _____.

One market detail I want to keep is _____.

Add one more smell, color, or sound: _____.

Puddle Planet Stamp Route

Choose a bottle-cap stamp, plan three puddle stops, and write the delivery path in order.

Point to the three stops and ask what happens first, next, and last.

sequence

10-minute tutoring warmup for a writer who needs a first, next, last path.

Tutor setup: Print one page, draw three small boxes on scrap paper, and let the writer point to a route choice.

Puddle Planet Post Office

Stamp Pick

The bottle-cap stamp shows _____.

The stamp means the note goes to _____.

The puddle planet has _____.

Route Stops

First, the mail cart rolls past _____.

Next, the leaf boat floats near _____.

Last, the note lands beside _____.

Path Line

The mixed-up route starts when _____.

The kind fix is to _____.

My clear route sentence is _____.

The order word that helped me most is _____.

Add one new puddle stop after the last stop: _____.

Buttonwood Library Train Ticket Rule

Make a ticket rule, choose a train stop, and write why the rule helps the tiny train.

Ask what the train needs to do calmly, then help the writer finish the because line.

rule and reason

12-minute tutoring warmup for a writer who can make one simple rule and explain why it helps.

Tutor setup: Print one page, offer two train-stop choices, and model one short because sentence.

Buttonwood Library Train

Ticket Rule

The ticket rule says each rider must _____.

The ticket color is _____.

The rule helps because _____.

Train Stop

The Buttonwood train stops at _____.

The shelf beside the stop holds _____.

The quiet bell reminds riders to _____.

Reason Line

Without the rule, the train might _____.

With the rule, the train can _____.

My rule sentence is _____.

The rule I wrote clearly is _____.

Add one more reason the rule helps: _____.

Cloudberry Clocktower Missing Minute

Pick one missing minute, show where it went, and write the fix in one short scene.

Ask what changed at the clocktower and what small fix would help right away.

small problem and fix

12-minute tutoring warmup for a writer who needs a concrete problem before drafting.

Tutor setup: Print one page, set a quiet timer, and let the writer choose a berry, bell, or stair detail.

Cloudberry Clocktower

Clock Clue

The missing minute is hiding near _____.

The cloudberry color is _____.

The tower stair points toward _____.

Small Fix

The bell helper tries _____.

The minute moves when _____.

The clocktower feels calmer because _____.

Scene Line

At first, the clock shows _____.

Then the helper notices _____.

My fix sentence is _____.

The clearest fix in my scene is _____.

Add one clocktower sound or color: _____.

Tiny Lantern Reef Glow Path

Choose a reef lantern, mark three glow stops, and write how the paper boat moves.

Ask the writer to use beside, under, around, or past in one line.

direction words

12-minute tutoring warmup for a writer who benefits from a map-like path and short direction words.

Tutor setup: Print one page, draw a simple three-dot path, and invite the writer to trace it before writing.

Tiny Lantern Reef

Lantern Pick

The tiny lantern glows beside _____.

The paper boat carries _____.

The reef path begins under _____.

Glow Stops

The first glow stop is near _____.

The second glow stop curves around _____.

The last glow stop waits past _____.

Boat Line

The boat moves slowly when _____.

The lantern keeper points to _____.

My reef direction sentence is _____.

The direction word I used best is _____.

Add one new glow stop with a direction word: _____.

Pencil Dragon Academy Door Redraw

Sketch a door idea in words, spot one confusing part, and redraw the sentence with a clearer choice.

Ask what the door should do, then offer one add, move, or replace choice.

revision choice 12-minute tutoring warmup for a writer who can improve one sentence without starting over.

Pencil Dragon Academy

Tutor setup: Print one page, give one pencil and one eraser, and say the goal is one better line.

Door Idea

The pencil door opens toward _____.

The dragon pencil marks _____.

The first sentence idea is _____.

Clearer Choice

One confusing part is _____.

I can add, move, or replace _____.

The clearer word I choose is _____.

Redraw Line

Before revision, the door seemed _____.

After revision, the door shows _____.

My redrawn sentence is _____.

One word I improved is _____.

Add one clearer academy detail to the sentence: _____.

Acorn Avenue Errand Order Sprint

Sort the acorn errands, add one exact detail for each stop, and draft the helper note.

Ask which stop must happen first, then have the writer point to the detail that proves it.

Sequence details and three-sentence draft 12-minute warmup for one-to-one or pair tutoring.

Acorn Avenue Errand Office

Tutor setup: Print one page, choose three errand slips, and set a pencil beside the route box.

Errand Clues

The first leaf slip asks for _____.

The second leaf slip belongs near _____.

The third leaf slip gives the clue _____.

Best Order

First, the acorn clerk should _____.

Next, the helper needs to _____.

Last, the route finishes at _____.

Short Draft

My opening sentence starts with _____.

My middle sentence adds the detail _____.

My final sentence explains _____.

One sequence word I used well is _____.

Add a fourth stop that changes the route by _____.

Button Bakery Clear Map Sprint

Fix the bakery map by choosing clear clues, ordering the turns, and writing a tidy route draft.

Ask the writer to replace one vague word with a thing readers can picture.

Map clues, exact nouns, and clear order 10-minute table warmup before a longer writing turn.

Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

Tutor setup: Draw a quick bakery path with three turns, then hand the writer the fill-in page.

Bakery Clues

The crumb map starts beside _____.

The button tray rolls toward _____.

The clearest bakery clue is _____.

Route Turns

Turn one goes past _____.

Turn two stops near _____.

Turn three ends beside _____.

Map Draft

First, the cart helper notices _____.

Next, the helper follows _____.

The map mixup is fixed when _____.

The exact noun that helped my map is _____.

Add one new bakery clue that points to _____.

Rain Gauge Railway Log Sprint

Read the gauge clue, choose the railway stops, and draft a log that explains the route.

Ask what changed, why it matters, and which detail should appear before the next step.

Observation details, cause, and next step 15-minute tutoring warmup for detail work and short explanatory drafting.

Rain Gauge Railway

Tutor setup: Set out the page, mark three imaginary gauge levels, and invite the writer to choose one route.

Gauge Details

The rain gauge shows _____.

The first weather detail is _____.

The railway ticket points toward _____.

Route Cause

The water sample moves because _____.

The switch changes the route near _____.

The next stop needs a note about _____.

Railway Log

First, the conductor checks _____.

Then, the railway carries _____.

The log should end with _____.

One cause-and-effect phrase I used is _____.

Add a second gauge clue that changes the next stop to _____.

Rain Boot Route Sequence Sprint

Choose a boot route, add dry path details, and write the ranger message in order.

Ask the writer to say the route aloud once, then write the words in the same order.

Transition words and route details 10-minute quick start for a hesitant writer or small pair.

Rain Boot Route Rangers

Tutor setup: Circle three route spots on the page and model one transition word aloud.

Route Spots

The boot route begins at _____.

The dry stepping spot is _____.

The puddle reflection shows _____.

Order Words

First, the ranger checks _____.

After that, the ranger follows _____.

Finally, the route reaches _____.

Ranger Draft

My first sentence tells about _____.

My second sentence adds the detail _____.

My last sentence gives the message _____.

The transition word that made my route clearer is _____.

Add one route sign that warns the ranger to check _____.

Pocket Park Notice Detail Sprint

Pick one park notice, add exact park details, and draft the helper's next message.

Ask which detail readers need first so the helper knows what to do.

Specific details and short notice drafting

12-minute tutoring page for detail practice before independent writing.

Pocket Park Notice Board

Tutor setup: Offer three tiny notice choices and have the writer underline the clearest one.

Notice Choice

The park notice asks for _____.

The helper should look near _____.

The missing detail on the notice is _____.

Park Details

The bottle-cap bench sits beside _____.

The pebble path curves around _____.

The tiny sign points toward _____.

Helper Message

First, the helper reads _____.

Next, the helper adds _____.

The clearer park message says _____.

The detail that made my notice clearer is _____.

Write a second notice that asks for _____.

Penny Path Direction Draft Sprint

Follow the button compass, order the clues, and write a short direction draft.

Ask the writer to test the route by tracing each turn with a finger before drafting.

Direction words, clue order, 10-minute warmup for direction language and sentence order.
and concise drafting

Penny Path Compass Shop

Tutor setup: Point to the compass shop, mark two path turns, and ask the writer to choose the final stop.

Compass Start

The compass needle points toward _____.

The penny path begins beside _____.

The shop clue shows _____.

Direction Clues

Go around _____.

Stop when you see _____.

Turn toward _____.

Route Draft

First, the helper follows _____.

Next, the compass changes when _____.

The final direction says _____.

The direction word I used clearly is _____.

Add a new compass clue that leads to _____.

Seed Library Map Note Sprint

Choose a seed drawer, map the route, and draft a return note with exact observations.

Ask the writer to keep the best observation and remove one extra word before the final line.

Observation notes, sequence, 15-minute tutoring sprint for short draft planning and revision.
and concise revision

Seed Library Map Room

Tutor setup: Set the map page beside a pencil, then ask the writer to choose one seed drawer and one route.

Seed Drawer

The seed drawer label says _____.

The packet contains _____.

The first map mark shows _____.

Map Route

First, the route passes _____.

Next, the map turns near _____.

Last, the route arrives at _____.

Return Note

The best observation is _____.

One word I can remove is _____.

My revised seed note says _____.

The observation I kept in my final note is _____.

Add a second seed drawer that changes the route by _____.

Greenhouse Gear Garden Voice Check

Write as the greenhouse helper who notices how the gears sound, move, and change the plant plan.

Ask which word makes the helper sound careful, curious, or excited.

voice through precise garden- 10-minute tutoring warmup for one writer or a quiet pair before a short draft.
machine details

Greenhouse Gear Garden

Tutor setup: Set out the page, a pencil, and two detail cards; invite the writer to choose one machine and one plant detail.

Voice Detail

The greenhouse helper sounds like _____.

The gear detail that fits this voice is _____.

One plant detail the helper notices is _____.

Sentence Shape

A short starter sentence could be _____.

A longer detail sentence could add _____.

The two sentences connect when _____.

Ending Beat

The helper changes the gear plan by _____.

The final word that matches the voice is _____.

My greenhouse ending line is _____.

One voice word I used well was _____.

Next time, I can add one sharper machine detail: _____.

Index Card Theater Dialogue Turn

Create a two-line exchange where the second line changes what the scene is about.

Ask what the speaker wants before the line and what changes after the reply.

dialogue voice and paragraph turn 12-minute tutoring sprint for shaping a tiny scene with a clear shift.

Index Card Theater Club

Tutor setup: Place three index cards face down, then have the writer pick one setting card and one voice card.

Scene Voice

The first speaker sounds _____.

The second speaker sounds _____.

The theater setting creates a mood of _____.

Dialogue Turn

The first line of dialogue is _____.

The reply changes the plan because _____.

A stage action between the lines is _____.

Paragraph Finish

The paragraph begins with _____.

The middle sentence should reveal _____.

My theater ending line is _____.

The line that changed my scene most was _____.

Add one stage action that shows voice: _____.

Margin Note Market Revision Choice

Trade a fuzzy note for a clear revision task, then write the improved sentence.

Ask which exact word, detail, or order change will help a reader follow the idea.

specific revision choice from a 10-minute tutoring warmup for turning vague feedback into one useful edit.
margin note

Margin Note Market

Tutor setup: Offer three sample margin notes and ask the writer to choose one note to make more specific.

Market Note

The fuzzy margin note says _____.

The clearer revision task is _____.

The part of the sentence to improve is _____.

Detail Trade

A plain word I can trade out is _____.

A stronger detail I can trade in is _____.

The sentence sounds clearer when _____.

Revised Line

Before revision, the idea was _____.

After revision, the idea shows _____.

My market ending line is _____.

One revision choice I can explain is _____.

Try the same trade on another sentence: _____.

Clue Label Tower Paragraph Label

Write a museum label paragraph that tells readers what to notice first, next, and last.

Ask which detail belongs in the paragraph and which detail can wait.

paragraph focus with clue and 12-minute tutoring sprint for building one focused paragraph from three details.
label details

Clue Label Tower Museum

Tutor setup: Put three object cards on the table and have the writer choose one clue worth explaining.

Clue Focus

The object on the tower shelf is _____.

The clue readers should notice first is _____.

A detail I can leave out for now is _____.

Paragraph Shape

My first sentence should point to _____.

My middle sentence should explain _____.

My final sentence should connect to _____.

Label Finish

The label sounds precise when I use _____.

One word I can revise for focus is _____.

My museum ending line is _____.

The detail that kept my paragraph focused was _____.

Write a second label with one new clue: _____.

Revision River Ferry Ending Pass

Send one rough ending across the ferry and bring back a clearer final sentence.

Ask what the reader should understand at the final dock.

ending revision with setup, turn, and final echo 10-minute tutoring sprint for revising a weak ending into a clearer final beat.

Revision River Ferry

Tutor setup: Ask the writer to mark one opening detail, one middle turn, and one final echo before drafting.

Ferry Load

The opening detail I can echo is _____.

The middle turn that matters is _____.

The rough ending currently says _____.

Revision Crossing

One word I can cut is _____.

One clearer word I can add is _____.

The ending feels stronger because _____.

Final Dock

The final sentence should show _____.

The echo from the opening is _____.

My ferry ending line is _____.

The ending choice I improved was _____.

Revise one more final sentence with an echo: _____.

Compass Craft Route Paragraph

Plan a paragraph route, then write the sentence that moves readers through the turn.

Ask which sentence gives the reader the clearest direction.

paragraph route with beginning, turn, and finish

12-minute tutoring sprint for planning one paragraph before drafting.

Compass Craft Academy

Tutor setup: Draw three small route dots and have the writer label the start, turn, and finish.

Route Dots

The paragraph starts at _____.

The paragraph turns when _____.

The paragraph finishes by showing _____.

Connection Words

A word that moves the route forward is _____.

A phrase that explains the turn is _____.

A sentence that connects two route dots is _____.

Academy Finish

The clearest sentence in my route is _____.

One route detail I can revise is _____.

My compass ending line is _____.

The sentence that shaped my paragraph was _____.

Add one more route dot for a longer paragraph: _____.

Almost Invention Instruction Voice

Write a clear workshop paragraph that explains how the almost-invention gets tested and revised.

Ask where the reader might get confused and what sentence can fix that spot.

clear instruction voice and revise-and-test ending

12-minute tutoring sprint for ordering steps and ending with a useful test note.

Almost Invention Workshop

Tutor setup: Give the writer three step cards and ask which step must come first for the invention to make sense.

Step Order

The invention almost works when _____.

The first step readers need is _____.

The step that needs clearer order is _____.

Instruction Voice

The instruction voice should sound _____.

A precise action word I can use is _____.

A sentence that explains the test is _____.

Workshop Ending

The test shows the inventor should revise _____.

The final note should help readers understand _____.

My invention ending line is _____.

One instruction sentence I made clearer was _____.

Add a test note that improves the ending: _____.