

Expanding File Story Scene Chain Card Pack

Sixteen expanding file cards help writers connect a fictional start scene, next scene, bridge detail, change marker, return detail, and paper pocket note.

Audience: Families, homeschool groups, tutors, and adult-led writing tables for writers ages 7-11.

Format: 16 printable expanding file story scene-chain cards plus adult guide tools, scene-chain routines, take-home scene slips, and optional adult prompts

Family-safe printable writing pages for adult-led, offline scene-chain practice.

$83

Included

- 16 printable expanding file scene-chain cards
- Adult setup guide
- Fictional scene-chain safety notes
- Start scene prompts
- Next scene prompts
- Bridge detail prompts
- Change marker and return detail prompts
- Six adult-led scene-chain routines
- Ten take-home scene slips
- Printable PDF and ZIP artifact

Scene-chain coaching

Expanding File Scene Chain Adult Guide

- Set out the expanding file, blank page stack, pencils, and one labeled paper pocket before the adult-led story start: _____.
- Choose one made-up scene chain card, then ask the child to keep every detail pretend and broad: _____.
- Use each paper pocket for one page move: start scene, next scene, bridge detail, change marker, return detail, and file note: _____.
- Keep the session offline and paper-only, with the adult holding the expanding file and guiding each page choice: _____.
- Ask for invented characters, places, objects, and small changes; do not ask for personal facts or real day details: _____.
- Close by tucking the page into the matching paper pocket and writing one adult-led restart note: _____.

Use one expanding file scene-chain card at a time. Keep every choice broad, invented, paper-only, and guided by an adult.

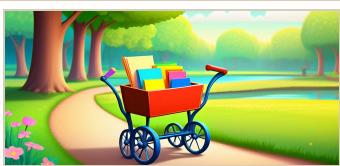

Sixteen scene-chain card worlds

Pick a world image, then connect one fictional page move with a pretend expanding file scene-chain card.

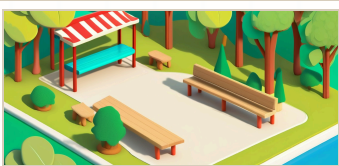

AGES 7-9

Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

AGES 7-9

Sticker Station Mail Cart

AGES 7-9

Pocket Park Notice Board

AGES 7-9

Rain Boot Route Rangers

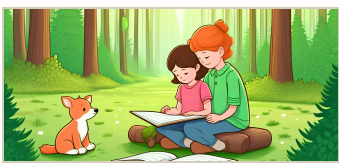

AGES 7-9

Paperclip Plaza Parcel Day

AGES 8-10

Solar Oven Picnic Station

AGES 8-10

Moss Message Observatory

AGES 8-10

Pantry Measurement Mystery

AGES 8-10

Seed Library Map Room

AGES 8-10

Pond Bridge Blueprint Club

AGES 10-11

Revision River Ferry

AGES 10-11

Binding Day Boardwalk

AGES 10-11

Margin Note Market

AGES 10-11

Almost Invention Workshop

AGES 10-11

Appendix Archive Lab

AGES 10-11

Compass Craft Academy

Choose the expanding file routine

SHORT FIRST-PAGE SETUP Start Scene Pocket Expanding file, one blank page, pencil, and start-scene paper pocket. 1. The adult opens the expanding file to the first paper pocket: _____. 2. The child names one made-up place, object, or character for the start scene: _____. 3. The adult asks what the pretend page should show first: _____. 4. The child writes or dictates one start scene line on the page: _____. This scene chain begins with one pretend page detail: _____.	ONE-PAGE CONTINUATION Next Scene Step Expanding file, current page, next blank page, and next-scene paper pocket. 1. The adult points from the start scene pocket to the next scene pocket: _____. 2. The child chooses one small made-up action that follows the first page: _____. 3. The adult asks what should stay connected from the start scene: _____. 4. The child writes one next scene line that follows on paper: _____. The next scene follows because the pretend action is: _____.
CONNECTION PASS Bridge Detail Fold Folded paper strip, expanding file, two page notes, and bridge paper pocket. 1. The adult places a folded bridge strip between two scene chain pages: _____. 2. The child chooses one pretend detail that connects both pages: _____. 3. The adult asks where that detail appears on the first page and the next page: _____. 4. The child writes the bridge detail on the folded strip: _____. The bridge detail keeps the scene chain connected with: _____.	GENTLE CHANGE PASS Change Marker Slip Small paper slip, pencil, expanding file, and change-marker paper pocket. 1. The adult opens the change-marker paper pocket and rereads the current page note: _____. 2. The child invents one calm change in the pretend scene: _____. 3. The adult asks how the page looks slightly different after the change: _____. 4. The child writes the change marker on the slip and tucks it into the pocket: _____. The made-up change marker for this scene chain is: _____.
CONTINUITY RETURN Return Detail Page Earlier page, blank page, expanding file, and return-detail paper pocket. 1. The adult opens an earlier page and asks which pretend detail can come back: _____. 2. The child picks one object, place clue, or character action from the scene chain: _____. 3. The adult places a blank page near the return-detail paper pocket: _____. 4. The child writes one return detail line that belongs on the new page: _____. The return detail brings back this pretend piece: _____.	PAPER WRAP PASS File Note Close Expanding file, page stack, file note slip, pencil, and final paper pocket. 1. The adult lays the scene chain pages in order beside the expanding file: _____. 2. The child taps the page that should guide the next adult-led writing pass: _____. 3. The adult writes a file note that names the next pretend scene move: _____. 4. The child tucks the file note into the final paper pocket: _____. The expanding file closes with this next page note: _____.

Try one scene chain later

TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Start Scene Slip Adult: open the first paper pocket and ask for one made-up scene starter: _____. Child: my pretend start scene begins with: _____. Next page: add one detail that belongs after the start scene: _____.	TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Next Scene Slip Adult: point from the first page to the next paper pocket: _____. Child: the next pretend thing that happens is: _____. Next page: write the action that follows this scene: _____.
TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Bridge Detail Slip Adult: place one folded bridge strip between two scene chain pages: _____. Child: the bridge detail connecting both pages is: _____. Next page: use the bridge detail in one new line: _____.	TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Change Marker Slip Adult: ask what small made-up change happens in this pretend scene: _____. Child: my change marker says: _____. Next page: show what is different after the change: _____.
TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Return Detail Slip Adult: reread one earlier page and ask what pretend detail can return: _____. Child: the returning detail is: _____. Next page: bring that detail back in a calm story line: _____.	TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Paper Pocket Order Slip Adult: lay the expanding file pockets in scene chain order: _____. Child: the paper pocket I need next is: _____. Next page: tuck the finished page into that pocket: _____.
TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Object Carry Slip Adult: ask which pretend object should move from one page to the next: _____. Child: the object I will carry forward is: _____. Next page: let that object help connect the scene chain: _____.	TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Place Clue Slip Adult: choose one made-up place clue that can stay steady across pages: _____. Child: my pretend place clue is: _____. Next page: repeat the clue in a new paper-only scene: _____.
TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP Character Action Slip Adult: ask what the pretend character does next on the page: _____. Child: the character action is: _____. Next page: connect the action to the next scene chain step: _____.	TAKE-HOME SCENE SLIP File Note Slip Adult: write one restart note before closing the expanding file: _____. Child: the next made-up page should begin with: _____. Next page: read the file note, then add one pretend scene line: _____.

Optional adult prompts

- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the expanding file opens to a pretend start scene about _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the scene chain moves to the next page when _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the bridge detail between these pages is _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the made-up change marker says _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the return detail that comes back is _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the paper pocket for this page should be labeled _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the pretend object carried forward is _____.
- Optional adult-led paper prompt: the file note for the next page begins with _____.

Button Bakery Map Mixup Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out an expanding file, one blank page, a pencil, and a pretend button map drawn only for this scene chain: _____.

Writer: keep the Button Bakery story made-up by moving one map clue from the start scene to the next scene, then into a paper pocket: _____.

Button Bakery Map Mix-Up

Start scene
Start scene: write who finds the pretend button map and what one marker seems to point toward on the page: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: write what the helper notices after turning the page, such as a shifted button, a new arrow, or a folded corner: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: add one small detail that connects the first map marker to the new page clue: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: mark the exact moment the scene chain changes with a new symbol, color word, or paper fold: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first button marker so the later scene connects to the beginning: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: label one expanding file paper pocket with the button clue that should travel to the next page: _____.

Quiet option: fill only the start scene and return detail blanks for the button-map mixup: _____ . Later paper line: make another Button Bakery scene chain with one pretend map marker and one paper pocket note: _____ .

Sticker Station Mail Cart Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place the expanding file, blank page, pencil, and three pretend sticker sort slips beside the card: _____.

Writer: make a scene chain where the mail cart starts with one sticker slip, changes on the next page, and files a note in a paper pocket: _____.

Sticker Station Mail Cart

Start scene Start scene: write which cart helper finds the first sticker slip and what the helper thinks it means: _____ _____	Next scene Next scene: write what changes when the cart reaches the next made-up station, such as a new sticker shape or turned slip: _____ _____
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one concrete detail that links the first sticker slip to the new station clue: _____ _____	Change marker Change marker: write the word or symbol on the page that shows the scene chain has shifted: _____ _____
Return detail Return detail: bring back the first sticker slip with a clearer meaning in the later scene: _____ _____	File pocket note File pocket note: choose the expanding file paper pocket that should hold the sticker clue for the next page: _____ _____

Quiet option: write only the sticker slip at the start and how it returns later: _____.

Later paper line: start another Sticker Station scene chain with one pretend sort slip and one paper pocket label: _____.

Pocket Park Notice Board Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set an expanding file, blank page, pencil, and one pretend notice-board slip on the table: _____.

Writer: build a Pocket Park scene chain by moving one notice-board clue across two pages and into the right paper pocket: _____.

Pocket Park Notice Board

Start scene Start scene: write what pretend notice appears on the board and which helper reads it first: _____ _____	Next scene Next scene: write the next page moment when the notice changes, gets a new border, or points to a tiny bench tag: _____ _____
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one object, color, or mark that appears in both scenes so the chain feels connected: _____ _____	Change marker Change marker: write the page signal that shows the board clue has changed, such as a flap, star mark, or crossed ribbon: _____ _____
Return detail Return detail: bring back the first notice-board detail in the later scene with a new use: _____ _____	File pocket note File pocket note: label an expanding file paper pocket with the notice-board clue to save for the next page: _____ _____

Quiet option: fill only the notice at the start and the returning notice detail: _____, Later paper line: make another Pocket Park scene chain with one made-up notice and one paper pocket clue: _____.

Rain Boot Route Rangers Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place the expanding file, one blank page, pencil, and a pretend rain-boot mark slip beside the writer: _____.

Writer: keep the ranger path fully made-up by writing a start scene, a next scene, and one paper pocket clue for the scene chain: _____.

Rain Boot Route Rangers

Start scene
Start scene: write which ranger finds the first pretend boot mark and what the mark suggests on the page: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: add one detail that links the first boot mark to the new page clue without naming any real place: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first boot mark so the later scene echoes the start: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: write what the next page reveals, such as a second boot mark, a paper puddle tag, or a tucked ribbon: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: write the exact page sign that shows the scene chain changes direction: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: choose an expanding file paper pocket for the pretend boot-mark clue and label it: _____.

Quiet option: write only the first boot mark and how it returns on the later page: _____. Later paper line: start another Rain Boot Rangers scene chain with one pretend trail mark and one paper pocket note: _____.

Paperclip Plaza Parcel Day Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out an expanding file, blank page, pencil, and one pretend parcel tag clipped to scrap paper: _____.

Writer: write a scene chain where a paperclip parcel clue starts on one page, changes on the next, and lands in a paper pocket: _____.

Paperclip Plaza Parcel Day

Start scene
Start scene: write who notices the clipped parcel tag and what tiny mark starts the story:

Next scene
Next scene: write what happens on the next page when the tag tilts, the clip moves, or a new fold appears:

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: add one matching detail that carries from the first parcel tag to the next scene:

Change marker
Change marker: write the paper sign that marks the scene change, such as a bent clip, dotted line, or new tag corner: _____

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first clipped tag detail when the parcel scene settles:

File pocket note
File pocket note: label the expanding file paper pocket where the parcel clue belongs before the next page: _____

Quiet option: fill only the clipped parcel tag and the return detail blanks: _____. Later paper line: make another Paperclip Plaza scene chain with one pretend parcel tag and one paper pocket clue: _____.

Solar Oven Picnic Station Story Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place the expanding file, blank page, pencil, and one pretend solar gauge card on the table: _____.

Writer: keep the solar station story on paper by chaining the first gauge scene to a next scene and filing one clue in a paper pocket: _____.

Solar Oven Picnic Station

Start scene Start scene: write which station helper reads the first pretend solar gauge and what the gauge card shows: _____ _____	Next scene Next scene: write what changes on the next page, such as a shifted shade mark, a tilted flap, or a new station tag: _____ _____
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one detail that appears on both the first gauge card and the next page clue: _____ _____	Change marker Change marker: write the symbol, fold, or short note that shows the scene chain has changed: _____ _____
Return detail Return detail: bring back the first gauge mark so the later scene connects to the start: _____ _____	File pocket note File pocket note: label one expanding file paper pocket with the solar gauge clue to carry forward: _____ _____

Quiet option: write only the first gauge card and the returning gauge detail: _____. Later paper line: start another Solar Oven Picnic Station scene chain with one pretend gauge and one paper pocket note: _____.

Moss Message Observatory Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out one blank page, this card, and three labeled paper pocket slips for start scene, next scene, and return detail: _____.

Writer: make up an observatory helper, a moss signal, and a pretend page where the scene chain changes one clue at a time: _____.

Moss Message Observatory

Start scene
Start scene: write the first observatory moment, including the helper, the moss signal color, and where the signal waits on the chart rail: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: add one concrete bridge detail, such as a pebble lens, folded chart corner, or whisper-quiet signal flag, that links both scenes: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first moss signal and explain how the changed mark helps the helper read it more clearly: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: move to the signal table and show what new moss mark appears beside the first chart note: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: write the exact clue change, such as the moss mark turning from a dot to a tiny arrow on the pretend page: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: place one sentence in the expanding file paper pocket that names the start scene clue and the return detail: _____.

Quiet option: adult points to the moss signal, and the writer fills only the bridge detail and return detail blanks: _____, Take-home line: continue a paper-only observatory scene chain by saving one pretend signal note in a paper pocket: _____.

Pantry Measurement Mystery Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place a blank page beside the expanding file and label one paper pocket for the first measure clue: _____.

Writer: invent a pretend shelf keeper, a measuring ribbon, and a made-up mystery that stays on paper: _____.

Pantry Measurement Mystery

Start scene
Start scene: write the first shelf moment where the helper finds a measuring ribbon with three odd tick marks: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: add one specific link between scenes, such as a bent ruler edge, chalk tally strip, or paper jar tag with a tiny square: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first measuring ribbon and show how its odd tick mark finally points to the right paper tag: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: move the helper to the tally shelf and show which tick mark does not match the pretend jar label row: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: write how the clue changes when the helper compares two pretend measurements on the page: _____.

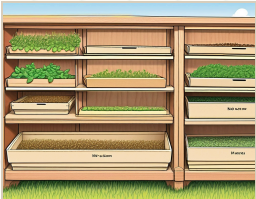

File pocket note
File pocket note: tuck a one-line measurement clue into the expanding file paper pocket for this scene chain: _____.

Quiet option: adult names the first tick mark, and the writer writes only the next scene and return detail: _____. Take-home line: make another paper-only measurement mystery by carrying one pretend ribbon clue from page to paper pocket: _____.

Seed Library Map Room Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set the expanding file open, add one blank page, and label a paper pocket for the map-room bridge detail: _____.

Writer: create a pretend map guide, a drawer map, and a made-up scene chain that follows one folded path clue: _____.

Seed Library Map Room

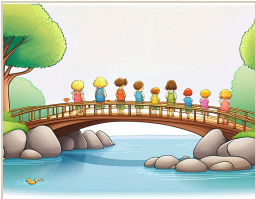

Start scene Start scene: write how the map guide opens a drawer map and finds one folded path clue beside a seed label stamp: _____.	Next scene Next scene: move to the long map table and show how the folded path points to a different drawer mark than expected: _____.
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one concrete object that links the scenes, such as a brass drawer pull, dotted path strip, or stamped corner square: _____.	Change marker Change marker: write the moment the path clue changes direction on the pretend page after the guide flips one map flap: _____.
Return detail Return detail: bring back the first drawer map and show how the changed path clue makes its first mark useful: _____.	File pocket note File pocket note: file one map-room bridge sentence in the expanding file paper pocket for later page planning: _____.

Quiet option: adult chooses the drawer map detail, and the writer fills only the change marker blank: _____. Take-home line: keep a paper-only map room scene chain by carrying one folded clue from start scene to return detail: _____.

Pond Bridge Blueprint Club Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a blank page, the expanding file, and a paper pocket labeled blueprint clue: _____.

Writer: make up a bridge planner, a pretend pond blueprint, and a scene chain where one sketch detail changes: _____.

Pond Bridge Blueprint Club

Start scene Start scene: write the first blueprint club moment where the planner draws a tiny bridge sketch beside a pebble marker: _____.	Next scene Next scene: move to the paper model table and show what part of the bridge sketch needs a new line or label: _____.
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one concrete bridge detail, such as a plank notch, lily-pad stamp, or folded blueprint flap, that connects the scenes: _____.	Change marker Change marker: write how the sketch changes from first idea to clearer paper plan while keeping the work calm and adult-led: _____.
Return detail Return detail: bring back the first pebble marker and show how the updated sketch now explains its place: _____.	File pocket note File pocket note: place one blueprint change sentence in the expanding file paper pocket for this pretend scene chain: _____.

Quiet option: adult circles one sketch detail, and the writer writes only the change marker and return detail: _____. Take-home line: build another paper-only blueprint scene chain by saving one sketch clue in a paper pocket: _____.

Revision River Ferry Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out two blank pages, the expanding file, and a paper pocket labeled ferry revision clue: _____.

Writer: invent a pretend ferry helper, a folded ticket clue, and a scene chain that revises one river crossing idea on paper: _____.

Revision River Ferry

Start scene Start scene: write the first ferry moment where the helper finds a folded ticket with one unclear dock symbol: _____.	Next scene Next scene: move to the ferry desk and show how the helper tries a clearer sentence for the dock symbol on the next page: _____.
Bridge detail Bridge detail: add one concrete bridge detail, such as a ticket crease, bell cord note, or folded ferry map edge, that ties the scenes together: _____.	Change marker Change marker: write the exact revision choice that changes the crossing idea, such as replacing a vague clue with a clearer paper symbol: _____.
Return detail Return detail: bring back the folded ticket and show how the revised symbol now makes the ferry scene chain easier to follow: _____.	File pocket note File pocket note: file one ferry revision sentence in the expanding file paper pocket so the returning clue stays connected: _____.

Quiet option: adult marks the folded ticket clue, and the writer writes only the revised symbol sentence: _____. Take-home line: continue a paper-only ferry scene chain by saving one pretend revision clue in a paper pocket: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place this card, blank paper, a pencil, and one expanding file paper pocket on the table for a private made-up boardwalk chain: _____.

Writer: with the adult, write one start scene, one next scene, and a bridge detail that keeps the pretend boardwalk chain connected: _____.

Binding Day Boardwalk

Start scene
Start scene: write the binding cart, the loose page stack, and the boardwalk helper who notices one bright spine ribbon: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: carry the bright spine ribbon from the first page into the next scene so the reader can follow the scene chain: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first spine ribbon and explain how it helps the helper connect the two boardwalk pages: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: move to the paper-stall counter where the helper finds a second loose page with a matching ribbon mark: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: show one gentle change, such as the loose pages shifting into a new order beside the binding cart: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: tuck the start scene, next scene, and ribbon bridge note into the expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Quiet option: write only the spine ribbon, the next loose page, and one return detail for the scene chain: _____.

Take-home line: keep the Binding Day Boardwalk page in the paper pocket and add one made-up connected scene later: _____.

Margin Note Market Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out this card, blank paper, pencil, and an expanding file paper pocket labeled for pretend margin notes: _____.

Writer: with the adult, start at one paper tag booth, move to the next page, and keep one margin note clue alive: _____.

Margin Note Market

Start scene

Start scene: write the paper tag booth, the tiny margin note on a folded page, and the keeper who spots it: _____.

Next scene

Next scene: shift to the ribbon ledger table where another character reads the margin note in a new way: _____.

Bridge detail

Bridge detail: repeat the tiny margin note wording or shape so the second scene clearly belongs to the first: _____.

Change marker

Change marker: add one paper-only change, such as the note moving from page edge to ledger corner: _____.

Return detail

Return detail: bring the original margin note back and write what the keeper understands after the ledger table scene: _____.

File pocket note

File pocket note: place the margin note clue and both scene pages in the expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Quiet option: write the margin note, where it moves next, and what it means when it returns: _____. Take-home line: save the Margin Note Market scene chain on paper and add one pretend booth detail later: _____.

Almost Invention Workshop Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: keep the activity adult-led and paper-only, then set this card beside blank paper, pencil, and an expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Writer: with the adult, make a pretend invention almost work, then write the next scene where one clue helps it improve: _____.

Almost Invention Workshop

Start scene
Start scene: write the cardboard gear, bent lever, and workshop helper who realizes the almost-invention needs one more paper clue: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: carry the bent lever note from the first scene to the sketch table so the scene chain stays clear: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the bent lever and write how the sketch table clue changes what the helper does next: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: move to the sketch table where the helper studies the gear note and tries a calmer pretend repair idea: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: show one change, such as the gear sketch turning from a question mark into a labeled paper arrow: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: file the start scene, sketch table scene, and lever bridge detail inside the expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Quiet option: write the bent lever, the sketch table clue, and one return detail for the almost-invention: _____. Take-home line: keep the Almost Invention Workshop scene chain in the paper pocket and add another pretend repair note later: _____.

Appendix Archive Lab Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: place this card, blank paper, pencil, and an expanding file paper pocket beside one made-up appendix slip: _____.

Writer: with the adult, build a pretend archive scene chain where one appendix slip changes meaning on the next page: _____.

Appendix Archive Lab

Start scene Start scene: write the appendix drawer, the numbered paper slip, and the archive helper who finds a missing label: _____.	Next scene Next scene: move to the sorting desk where the numbered slip points to a different made-up page clue: _____.
Bridge detail Bridge detail: repeat the numbered appendix slip in both scenes so the archive chain feels connected: _____.	Change marker Change marker: show the slip changing from a loose clue into a sorted page marker with one added symbol: _____.
Return detail Return detail: bring back the missing label and write how the sorted slip helps explain it: _____.	File pocket note File pocket note: slide the appendix slip, start scene, next scene, and return label note into the expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Quiet option: write the numbered slip, the sorting desk clue, and the returned missing label: _____.

Take-home line: keep the Appendix Archive Lab scene chain on paper and add one made-up appendix clue later: _____.

Compass Craft Academy Scene Chain Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out this card, blank paper, pencil, and an expanding file paper pocket for a made-up compass craft chain: _____.

Writer: with the adult, start with one pretend compass direction, change it on the next page, and return to the first clue: _____.

Compass Craft Academy

Start scene
Start scene: write the compass craft table, the north-point paper arrow, and the maker who needs a clearer direction clue: _____.

Next scene
Next scene: move to the folded-map bench where the maker compares the arrow with a second paper compass mark: _____.

Bridge detail
Bridge detail: carry the north-point paper arrow into the folded-map bench scene so the scene chain has a clear link: _____.

Change marker
Change marker: show one change, such as the arrow pointing toward a new craft symbol instead of the first mark: _____.

Return detail
Return detail: bring back the first north-point arrow and explain what it helps the maker understand now: _____.

File pocket note
File pocket note: put the compass arrow, folded-map clue, and return detail page into the expanding file paper pocket: _____.

Quiet option: write the compass arrow, one changed mark, and one return sentence for the scene chain: _____. Take-home line: save the Compass Craft Academy page in the paper pocket and add one pretend direction clue later: _____.