

Library Pocket Story Summary Card Pack

Sixteen paper pocket cards help writers summarize a story start, main action, important change, ending result, keeper detail, summary sentence, and library pocket label.

Audience: Families, homeschool groups, tutors, and adult-led writing tables for writers ages 7-11.

Format: 16 printable library pocket story summary cards plus adult guide tools, summary routines, take-home summary slips, and optional adult prompts

Family-safe printable writing pages for adult-led, offline summary practice.

$97

Included

- 16 printable library pocket summary cards
- Adult setup guide
- Fictional summary safety notes
- Story start prompts
- Main action prompts
- Important change prompts
- Ending result prompts
- Keeper detail prompts
- Six adult-led summary routines
- Ten take-home summary slips
- Printable PDF and ZIP artifact

Summary coaching

Library Pocket Story Summary Adult Guide: ____.

- Set out one story summary card, seven blank slips, a pencil, and a paper pocket before the session begins: ____.
- Name the paper-only path: story start, main action, important change, ending result, keeper detail, summary sentence, and library pocket label: ____.
- Choose one fictional story world from the pack and keep all names, places, and actions invented: ____.
- Place one blank slip under each summary heading so the writer can see the full order before writing: ____.
- Keep the finished slips tucked in the paper pocket for adult-led reuse: ____.

Facilitation notes

- Use short spoken choices when a writer gets stuck: start place, action, change, result, detail, sentence, label: ____.
- Accept dictated words, copied adult wording, or independent writing as long as the summary stays fictional: ____.
- Keep the summary sentence to one clear line that names the story start, main action, important change, and ending result: ____.
- Use the keeper detail only if it helps the summary stay specific without adding identifying facts: ____.
- Close by rereading the slips in order and checking that the library pocket label matches the summary sentence: ____.

Safety notes

- Use pretend names, broad made-up places, and invented actions instead of identifying facts: ____.
- Keep the activity away from outside audiences, correction marks, or comparison between writers: ____.
- Keep the pocket metaphor separate from outside title pages, creator names, or service forms: ____.
- Keep every prompt about a pretend story with invented details only: ____.
- Skip any prompt that starts to feel like identifying-fact collection and return to invented story facts: ____.

Use one story summary card at a time. Keep every summary line broad, invented, paper-only, and guided by an adult.

Sixteen summary card worlds

Pick a world image, then name the story start, main action, important change, ending result, keeper detail, summary sentence, and library pocket label.

AGES 6-8
Moon Muffin Market

AGES 10-11
Pencil Dragon Academy

AGES 7-8
Teacup Town Weather Window

AGES 7-8
Mitten Market Lost Ticket

AGES 7-9
Rain Boot Route Rangers

AGES 8-10
Greenhouse Gear Garden

AGES 8-10
Moss Message Observatory

AGES 8-10
Rain Gauge Railway

AGES 8-10
Compost Clock Workshop

AGES 8-10
Seed Library Map Room

AGES 8-10
Solar Oven Picnic Station

AGES 8-10
Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

AGES 10-11
Almost Invention Workshop

AGES 10-11
Appendix Archive Lab

AGES 10-11
Clue Label Tower Museum

AGES 10-11
Index Card Theater Club

Choose the story summary routine

USE BEFORE A FIRST SUMMARY CARD SO THE ADULT AND WRITER CAN SEE THE SEVEN PAPER PARTS: ____.

Pocket Order Setup: ____.

1. The adult lays out blank slips labeled story start, main action, important change, ending result, keeper detail, summary sentence, and library pocket label: ____.
2. The writer points to the story start slip and says where the fictional story begins: ____.
3. The adult points across the row and names each next part in order: ____.
4. The writer tucks the empty slips halfway into the paper pocket until each one is ready: ____.

USE WHEN THE MIDDLE OF THE SUMMARY FEELS LIKE A LIST INSTEAD OF A CHANGE: ____.

Important Change Check: ____.

1. The adult rereads the story start and main action in a calm voice: ____.
2. The writer names what becomes different because of the main action: ____.
3. The adult helps trim the answer to one important change: ____.
4. The writer writes the important change and slides it behind the main action slip: ____.

USE WHEN THE SUMMARY SENTENCE NEEDS ONE VIVID BUT SMALL DETAIL: ____.

Keeper Detail Sort: ____.

1. The adult spreads the story start, main action, important change, and ending result slips: ____.
2. The writer chooses one keeper detail that helps the summary stay clear: ____.
3. The adult asks whether the keeper detail supports the summary sentence: ____.
4. The writer writes the keeper detail on its slip and keeps it beside the sentence blank: ____.

USE WHEN THE SUMMARY NEEDS A CLEAR OPENING AND ONE ACTION THAT MOVES THE STORY: ____.

Story Start To Main Action: ____.

1. The adult asks for one invented story start with a broad pretend place and a made-up character role: ____.
2. The writer writes the story start on the first slip: ____.
3. The adult asks what the character does next that matters most: ____.
4. The writer writes the main action on the second slip and places it after the story start: ____.

USE WHEN THE SUMMARY NEEDS A RESULT THAT CONNECTS BACK TO THE EARLIER SLIPS: ____.

Ending Result Match: ____.

1. The adult asks what happens after the important change in the fictional story: ____.
2. The writer chooses one ending result that answers the main action: ____.
3. The adult checks that the ending result does not add a new unrelated problem: ____.
4. The writer writes the ending result and places it after the important change: ____.

USE AT THE END OF A PAPER SESSION TO CLOSE THE SUMMARY NEATLY: ____.

Summary Sentence And Pocket Label: ____.

1. The adult reads the four main slips in order without adding extra facts: ____.
2. The writer writes one summary sentence using the story start, main action, important change, and ending result: ____.
3. The adult asks for a short library pocket label that names the summary focus: ____.
4. The writer writes the library pocket label and tucks all slips into the paper pocket: ____.

Try one summary later

TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Story Start Slip The fictional story start is _____. Ask for one invented starting place or situation, then stop.	TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Main Action Slip The main action that moves the story is _____. Help choose one action, not every event.
TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Important Change Slip The important change after the main action is _____. Look for what becomes different in the fictional story.	TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Ending Result Slip The ending result is _____. Keep the result connected to the earlier action.
TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Keeper Detail Slip The keeper detail that helps the summary is _____. Choose one useful detail and leave the rest out.	TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Summary Sentence Slip My summary sentence is: _____. Use one clear sentence from the finished slips.
TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Library Pocket Label Slip The library pocket label for this summary is _____. Make the label short and fictional.	TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Order Check Slip My slips are in this order: story start, main action, important change, ending result, keeper detail, summary sentence, library pocket label: _____. Use this as a quiet reread pass.
TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Shorten The Summary Slip One extra detail I can leave out is _____. Frame this as paper sorting, not judging.	TAKE-HOME SUMMARY SLIP Pocket Close Slip The finished paper pocket holds a summary about _____. Close the session by filing the slips without sharing or comparing.

- Optional adult prompts
- Ask which slip should be easiest to fill first, then start there: _____.
 - Offer two adult-made fictional examples if the writer needs a model: _____.
 - Reread the slips in order before asking for the summary sentence: _____.
 - Point to the important change slip when the summary gets too long: _____.
 - Use the keeper detail slip only after the ending result is clear: _____.
 - Help shorten the library pocket label to a few plain words: _____.
 - Keep unused slips blank and return them to the pack for another paper session: _____.
 - End the session when the summary sentence and library pocket label both match the same fictional story: _____.

Moon Muffin Market Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a pencil, blank page, and pretend library pocket slip before the summary talk: ____.

Writer: invent a moon market helper and keep every answer made up and paper-only: ____.

Moon Muffin Market

Story start
story start: write who opens the moon market stall and what sign begins the story: ____.

Main action
main action: write what the helper sorts, carries, or fixes at the pretend market: ____.

Important change
important change: write what becomes different after the helper looks closely: ____.

Ending result
ending result: write how the market feels or works at the end: ____.

Keeper detail
keeper detail: write one moon market detail the summary should keep: ____.

Summary sentence
summary sentence: write one sentence that tells the start, action, change, and end: ____.

Library pocket label
library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this Moon Muffin Market summary: ____.

Quiet option: fill only the story start, ending result, and library pocket label first: ____.

Take-home line: save this paper summary and add one new moon market keeper detail later: ____.

Pencil Dragon Academy Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: place a blank page, pencil, and pretend library pocket slip beside the practice-hall summary card: ____.

Writer: invent the pencil dragons, practice hall, and helper while every answer stays fictional and paper-only: ____.

Pencil Dragon Academy

Story start

story start: write who enters the pencil-dragon practice hall and what paper signal starts the story: ____.

Important change

important change: write what changes in the hall after the helper notices a clue: ____.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: write one sharp, clear practice-hall detail the summary should keep: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this Pencil Dragon Academy summary: ____.

Main action

main action: write the biggest thing the helper does to guide the pencil dragons: ____.

Ending result

ending result: write the final calm result for the helper and pencil dragons: ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: write one sentence that explains the whole invented story clearly: ____.

Quiet option: fill the main action and important change first, then add the summary sentence: ____.

Take-home line: keep this paper summary slip and revise one keeper detail later: ____.

Teacup Town Weather Window Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set a pencil, blank page, and pretend library pocket slip near the weather-window card: ____.

Writer: make up the teacup window, tiny weather sign, and helper while answers stay on paper: ____.

Teacup Town Weather Window

Story start
story start: write who notices the teacup window and what weather sign begins the story: ____.

Main action
main action: write what the helper checks, turns, or sorts at the window: ____.

Important change
important change: write what changes when the weather sign finally makes sense: ____.

Ending result
ending result: write what the helper sees through the window at the end: ____.

Keeper detail
keeper detail: write one tiny Teacup Town detail that belongs in the summary: ____.

Summary sentence
summary sentence: write one sentence that tells the story in order: ____.

Library pocket label
library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this weather-window summary: ____.

Quiet option: fill only the story start, important change, and summary sentence: ____.

Take-home line: save this paper summary and add one new weather-window detail later: ____.

Mitten Market Lost Ticket Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: place a pencil, blank page, and pretend library pocket slip beside the mitten-ticket card: ____.

Writer: invent the market stalls, mitten tags, ticket helper, and paper clues: ____.

Mitten Market Lost Ticket

Story start

story start: write who finds the pretend lost ticket and where the market story begins: ____.

Main action

main action: write what the helper does with the ticket, tag, or stall clue: ____.

Important change

important change: write what becomes clear after the ticket clue is compared: ____.

Ending result

ending result: write how the ticket question ends in the pretend market: ____.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: write one mitten or market detail the summary should keep: ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: write one sentence that tells the ticket story from start to end: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this Mitten Market summary: ____.

Quiet option: fill the story start and ending result before the other blanks: ____.

Take-home line: tuck this paper summary away and add one new ticket detail later: ____.

Rain Boot Route Rangers Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a blank page, pencil, and pretend library pocket slip before the route summary: ____.

Writer: invent rain boots, route marks, and helpful rangers while the route stays fully made up: ____.

Rain Boot Route Rangers

Story start
story start: write who spots the first rain-boot route mark and what begins the story: ____.

Main action
main action: write what the rangers trace, sort, or repair on the pretend route: ____.

Important change
important change: write what changes after the route marks are put in order: ____.

Ending result
ending result: write how the pretend route ends for the rangers: ____.

Keeper detail
keeper detail: write one rain-boot or route-mark detail the summary should keep: ____.

Summary sentence
summary sentence: write one clear sentence that summarizes the whole route story: ____.

Library pocket label
library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this Rain Boot Route Rangers summary: ____.

Quiet option: fill the main action, important change, and label before the full sentence: ____.

Take-home line: keep this paper summary and add one new route-mark detail later: ____.

Greenhouse Gear Garden Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: place a pencil, blank page, and pretend library pocket slip beside the gear-garden card: ____.

Writer: invent the greenhouse gears, garden dials, and helper while every answer stays paper-only: ____.

Greenhouse Gear Garden

Story start story start: write who hears the first garden gear click and what begins the story: ____.	Main action main action: write what the helper adjusts, matches, or labels in the greenhouse: ____.
Important change important change: write what changes after the gears and dials line up: ____.	Ending result ending result: write how the greenhouse works or feels at the end: ____.
Keeper detail keeper detail: write one gear, dial, or greenhouse detail the summary should keep: ____.	Summary sentence summary sentence: write one sentence that tells the gear-garden story clearly: ____.
Library pocket label library pocket label: write a short pretend label for this Greenhouse Gear Garden summary: ____.

Quiet option: fill only the important change, ending result, and keeper detail first: ____.

Take-home line: save this paper summary and add one new gear-garden detail later: ____.

Moss Message Observatory Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out one blank summary card, pencil, and small pocket label strip; keep all observatory details invented: ____.

Writer: make the moss signal, telescope rail, and observatory helper fictional, then fill each summary blank: ____.

Moss Message Observatory

Story start story start: ____ sees a moss message on the observatory ledge. _____ _____	Main action main action: ____ follows the moss marks from the telescope rail to the sky chart table. _____ _____
Important change important change: ____ changes when the moss marks rearrange into one clear paper path. _____ _____	Ending result ending result: ____ shows how the helper places the solved moss message in the library pocket. _____ _____
Keeper detail keeper detail: ____ names one moss color, lens mark, or ledge shape that makes the summary clear. _____ _____	Summary sentence summary sentence: ____ tells the whole observatory story in one sentence. _____ _____
Library pocket label library pocket label: ____ gives this moss-message summary a short pretend label. _____ _____

Quiet option: fill only story start, ending result, and library pocket label: ____.

Take-home line: save the paper summary with one keeper detail for a later adult-led summary pass: ____.

Rain Gauge Railway Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: place a blank summary card, pencil, pretend gauge strip, and pocket label slip beside the card: ____.

Writer: keep the rain gauge posts, rail cart, and helper invented while you complete the paper summary: ____.

Rain Gauge Railway

Story start story start: ____ notices the rain gauge needle pointing at a tiny rail cart. _____ _____	Main action main action: ____ moves the cart between three pretend gauge posts to compare clues. _____ _____
Important change important change: ____ changes when the middle gauge shows a new mark. _____ _____	Ending result ending result: ____ explains which rail post holds the answer. _____ _____
Keeper detail keeper detail: ____ names the gauge color, rail token, or cart bell to keep. _____ _____	Summary sentence summary sentence: ____ sums up the rain-gauge railway story in one clear line. _____ _____
Library pocket label library pocket label: ____ writes the short label for this railway summary. _____ _____

Quiet option: fill only main action, keeper detail, and summary sentence: ____ . Take-home line: keep the railway summary card with its library pocket label for another paper pass: ____ .

Compost Clock Workshop Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a blank summary card, pencil, pretend clock strip, and pocket label slip before writing: ____.

Writer: invent the compost clock, leaf gears, and workshop helper, then keep every answer on paper: ____.

Compost Clock Workshop

Story start

story start: ____ enters a workshop where a compost clock ticks beside a leaf bin.

Important change

important change: ____ changes when the clock hand moves after a new leaf layer settles.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: ____ names one gear tooth, leaf tag, or soft tick that belongs in the summary.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: ____ gives this workshop summary a short pretend label.

Main action

main action: ____ turns paper gears to match leaf layers with clock marks.

Ending result

ending result: ____ explains which gear tells the workshop order.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: ____ tells the compost-clock workshop story in one sentence.

Quiet option: fill only story start, important change, and keeper detail: ____ . Take-home line: save the workshop summary with its pocket label for one later adult-led summary pass: ____ .

Seed Library Map Room Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: provide a blank summary card, pencil, pretend seed tag, and library pocket label strip: ____.

Writer: keep the seed library, map drawers, and room helper invented while the summary stays on paper: ____.

Seed Library Map Room

Story start

story start: ____ opens a pretend map drawer in the seed-library map room.

Important change

important change: ____ changes when one paper map turns and a seed tag no longer fits.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: ____ names one seed stamp, map corner, or drawer color that helps the summary.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: ____ writes the short pretend label for this map room summary.

Main action

main action: ____ matches seed tags to three paper map shapes.

Ending result

ending result: ____ explains where the seed tag belongs in the invented room.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: ____ tells the seed-library map room story in one sentence.

Quiet option: fill only main action, ending result, and library pocket label: ____ . Take-home line: keep the map room summary card ready for a later paper summary pass: ____ .

Solar Oven Picnic Station Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Adult: set out a blank summary card, pencil, pretend sun tile, and pocket label strip; keep the station fictional: ____.

Writer: invent the solar oven panel, picnic station helper, and sun-tile problem without leaving the paper page: ____.

Solar Oven Picnic Station

Story start
story start: ____ arrives at a pretend picnic station with a solar oven panel and folded sun tiles.

Main action
main action: ____ arranges sun tiles so the paper oven dial points to the right basket marker.

Important change
important change: ____ changes when a cloud card slides over one sun tile.

Ending result
ending result: ____ explains how the station helper keeps the picnic plan working on paper.

Keeper detail
keeper detail: ____ names one sun tile, dial mark, or blanket pattern that belongs in the summary.

Summary sentence
summary sentence: ____ tells the solar-oven picnic station story in one sentence.

Library pocket label
library pocket label: ____ gives this picnic station summary a short pretend label.

Quiet option: fill only story start, important change, and summary sentence: ____.

Take-home line: save the picnic station summary with one keeper detail for later adult-led paper use: ____.

Tidepool Timekeepers Lab Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Place this card, a pencil, and three blank paper slips beside a pretend tidepool clock sketch: ____.

Fill the blanks for a made-up tidepool lab story; keep every detail fictional and paper-only: ____.

Tidepool Timekeepers Lab

Story start

story start: In the tidepool timekeepers lab, the first helper notices ____.

Important change

important change: The lab changes when ____ shifts from confusing to useful.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: Keep this small lab detail in the summary: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: File this fictional summary under ____.

Main action

main action: The helper tests ____ to keep the tiny tide clocks in order.

Ending result

ending result: By the end, the timekeepers know ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: Write one sentence with the start, action, change, and result: ____.

quiet option: Fill only story start, keeper detail, and library pocket label first: ____.

take-home line: Save the paper card and add a clearer summary sentence later: ____.

Almost Invention Workshop Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Place this card, a pencil, and a pretend invention sketch with one circled part: ____.

Fill the blanks for a made-up workshop story about one almost-working idea: ____.

Almost Invention Workshop

Story start

story start: At the almost-invention workshop, the maker begins with ____.

Important change

important change: The invention changes when ____.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: Keep one workshop detail, such as a bent tag or brass knob: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: File this fictional summary under ____.

Main action

main action: The maker tries ____ with a harmless gear, flap, or lever.

Ending result

ending result: By the end, the maker can use ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: Summarize the workshop story in one sentence: ____.

quiet option: Fill story start and ending result before the full summary sentence: ____.

take-home line: Save the paper card and add one stronger keeper detail later: ____.

Appendix Archive Lab Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Place this card, a pencil, and three pretend appendix slips with one sideways slip: ____.

Fill the blanks for a made-up archive lab story where one extra note becomes useful: ____.

Appendix Archive Lab

Story start story start: In the appendix archive lab, the sorter opens ____.	Main action main action: The sorter compares ____ with a tucked extra note.
Important change important change: The archive changes when ____ moves to the right pocket.	Ending result ending result: By the end, the extra note helps explain ____.
Keeper detail keeper detail: Keep one archive detail, such as a green tab or quiet tray: ____.	Summary sentence summary sentence: Write one sentence that tells the archive summary clearly: ____.
Library pocket label library pocket label: File this fictional summary under ____.

quiet option: Fill main action, important change, and library pocket label first: ____.

take-home line: Save the paper card and add one cleaner ending result later: ____.

Clue Label Tower Museum Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Place this card, a pencil, and a pretend tower label stack with one blank tag: ____.

Fill the blanks for a made-up tower museum story about one clue getting a clear label: ____.

Clue Label Tower Museum

Story start

story start: At the clue label tower museum, the label keeper finds ____.

Important change

important change: The tower changes when ____ becomes clear.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: Keep one tower museum detail, such as a narrow shelf or silver tag: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: File this fictional summary under ____.

Main action

main action: The keeper matches ____ to a broad clue label.

Ending result

ending result: By the end, the clue label shows ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: Write one sentence that summarizes the clue label story: ____.

quiet option: Fill story start, important change, and keeper detail first: ____ . take-home line: Save the paper card and add one sharper library pocket label later: ____ .

Index Card Theater Club Story Summary Card

Adult setup: Place this card, a pencil, and three pretend index-card scene cues beside a paper stage sketch: ____.

Fill the blanks for a made-up theater club story with invented names and broad made-up places: ____.

Index Card Theater Club

Story start

story start: At the index-card theater club, the cue keeper begins with ____.

Important change

important change: The club changes when ____ moves to the top of the stack.

Keeper detail

keeper detail: Keep one theater detail, such as a folded prop tag or blue curtain mark: ____.

Library pocket label

library pocket label: File this fictional summary under ____.

Main action

main action: The cue keeper arranges ____ on the paper stage.

Ending result

ending result: By the end, the scene can begin because ____.

Summary sentence

summary sentence: Write one sentence that summarizes the theater card story: ____.

quiet option: Fill main action and ending result before the full summary sentence: ____ , take-home line: Save the paper card and add one better keeper detail later: ____ .